PART THREE

ONTOLOGICO-STATIC PRESENTATION OF THE
ESSENTIAL CONNECTION OF THE
FUNDAMENTAL FACULTIES

Ontologico-static presentation	113
1. The three-fold division of the fundamental faculties	115
2. The subordination of sense and imagination	118
3. Temporal interpretation of the triple synthesis	122
a) The synthesis of apprehension in intuition	123
b) The synthesis of reproduction in imagination	125
c) The synthesis of recognition in a concept	127
4. The transcendental subject	128
5. Immanence	134
6. Transcendence	139
7. The transcendental object	144
8. The ontological transposition	147
9. Kant's withdrawal from the A edition	152

PART FOUR ONTOLOGICO-GENETIC PRESENTATION OF THE
 ESSENTIAL CONNECTION OF THE
 FUNDAMENTAL FACULTIES

Ontologico-genetic presentation	167
1. Practical reason	168
2. Trans-finite human being	172
3. The Ground of Identity	175
4. The Correlative Ground	177
a) The faculty of imagination	177
b) General theory of the Schematism	180
c) Ontological interpretation of the Schematism	184
d) Image and Schema	186
e) The world of images	188
5. The Ground of Correspondence	190
a) The faculty of sense	190
b) General theory of the Principles	194
c) Ontological interpretation of the Analogies	197
d) Image and thing	201
e) The world of things	205
6. The Pre-figurative Ground	208
7. Objective consciousness	212
8. Reflective consciousness	214
a) Phenomenological exposition of the essence of objectivity in general	215
b) Phenomenological exposition of time	220
