

CONTENTS

HISTORICAL INTRODUCTION

vii

*The Book on Adler: The Religious Confusion of the Present Age
Illustrated by Magister Adler as a Phenomenon*

EDITOR'S PREFACE

3

INTRODUCTION

7

CHAPTER I

The Historical Situation:

THE COLLISION OF MAGISTER ADLER, AS A TEACHER IN THE
STATE CHURCH, WITH THE ESTABLISHED ORDER; THE SPECIAL INDIVIDUAL WHO HAS A REVELATION-FACT

28

CHAPTER II

A Revelation in the Situation of the Present Age

36

CHAPTER III

Adler's Own Shifting of His Essential Point of View, or That He Does Not Understand Himself,
Does Not Himself Believe That a Revelation
Has Been Given to Him.

51

Appendix to Chapter III

88

CHAPTER IV

A Psychological View of Adler as a Phenomenon and as a Satire on Hegelian Philosophy and the Present Age

91

ADDENDUM I

The Dialectical Relations: the Universal,
the Single Individual, the Special Individual 143

ADDENDUM II

The Difference between a Genius and an Apostle

173

SUPPLEMENT	189
Key to References	190
Initial Pages of Versions of The Book on Adler	192
Selected Entries from Kierkegaard's Journals and Papers Pertaining to The Book on Adler	211
Selections from Adler's Writings	339
EDITORIAL APPENDIX	349
Acknowledgments	351
Notes	353
Bibliographical Note	383
Index	385