

---

Contents

---

Acknowledgments vii

I

HEGEL'S Philosophy of Right
AS A THEORY OF JUSTICE I

The Idea of Individual Freedom:
Intersubjective Conditions of Autonomy 7

"Right" in the Philosophy of Right:
Necessary Spheres of Self-Realization 18

II

THE CONNECTION BETWEEN THE THEORY OF JUSTICE AND THE DIAGNOSIS OF THE AGE 25

Suffering from Indeterminacy:
Pathologies of Individual Freedom 28

"Liberation" from Suffering:
The Therapeutic Significance of "Ethical Life" 42

III

THE THEORY OF ETHICAL LIFE AS A NORMATIVE THEORY
OF MODERNITY 48

Self-Realization and Recognition:
Conditions of "Ethical Life" 49

The Over-Institutionalization of "Ethical Life":
Problems of the Hegelian Approach 63

Index 81