

Contents

Preface	v
Introduction	ix
Maria van der Schaar
Part I Constructivism, Judgement and Reason
1 Verificationism Then and Now	3
Per Martin-Löf
2 Demonstrations Versus Proofs, Being an Afterword to Constructions, Proofs, and the Meaning of the Logical Constants	15
Göran Sundholm
3 Containment and Variation; Two Strands in the Development of Analyticity from Aristotle to Martin-Löf	23
Göran Sundholm
Part II Judgement and Reason in the Seventeenth Century
4 Descartes' Theory of Judgement: Warranted Assertions, the Key to Science	39
Elodie Cassan
5 Striving, Oomph, and Intelligibility in Spinoza	49
Della Rocca Michael

Part III Kant, Neo-Kantianism, and Bolzano

- 6 The Role of Wolff's Analysis of Judgements in Kant's Inaugural Dissertation 69
Johan Blok
- 7 Windelband on *Beurteilung 85
Arnaud Dewalque
- 8 A Priori Knowledge in Bolzano, Conceptual
Truths, and Judgements 101
Stefan Roski

Part IV Husserl, Frege and Russell

- 9 Immanent and Real States of Affairs in Husserl's Early Theory of Judgement: Reflections on Manuscripts from 1893/1894 and Their Background in the Logic of Brentano and Stumpf 133
Robin D. Rollinger
- 10 Frege and Russell on Assertion 151
Jeremy J. Kelly