

CONTENTS

CONTENTS	v
INTRODUCTION	1
FOREWORD The Heirs of Gediminas by Tomas Venclova	7
 PART I. THE CHALLENGE
1. The Person, Society and the State by Bronius Kuzmickas	17
2. Totalitarianism at Bay? by Evaldas Nekrašas	29
3. The Challenge of Post-communism: Philosophy and Politics by Marius P. Saulauskas	39
 PART II. GOALS OF RECONSTRUCTION
4. An Outline of Philotopy by A. Šliogeris	51
5. Freedom's Paradoxes in Search of Their Roots and Fruits by Aleksandr Dobrynin	59
6. Lithuania at the End of the Twentieth Century: The Creation of an Open Society and Culture by Leonidas Donskis	75
7. Ethnocultural Fundamentalism in Post-totalitarian Society: Methodology, Ideology and Self-fulfilling Prophecy by Leonidas Donskis	83
 PART III. COMPONENTS OF A RENEWED LITHUANIAN CULTURE
8. Axiology: Classical and Modern by Z. Norkus	97
9. History: The Grand Fact of Being by Algis Mickunas	105
10. Equality and Freedom: Two Values to Be Rediscovered in the Transition to Democracy by Georgi Karasimenov	125
11. "Humaneness" in the Past and Today by Jadwiga Komorowska	135
12. The Second Lithuanian Revival: Culture as Performance by Vytautas Kavolis	149
 INDEX	 161