

Contents

PREFACE TO THE REVISED AND EXPANDED EDITION	vii
EDITOR'S NOTE	xi
PREFACE	xiii
Introduction	1
1. The textual tradition	1
2. Parmenides' poetic dialect	7
3. The form of the poem	9
(i) Parmenides' debt to Homer	9
(ii) The way of the goddess and the journey of persuasion	12
(iii) Cosmology and myth	13
4. Parmenides' criticism of earlier philosophers	18
5. Parmenides' investigation of the nature of Being	20
6. Parmenides' influence on philosophy in the fifth century B.C.	23
7. Parmenides' influence on the theory of Forms	27
8. The criticism of Parmenides' monism in the fourth century B.C.	30
9. Parmenides' philosophy in the Hellenistic and Roman period	34
10. The Biographical tradition	39
TEXT AND TRANSLATION OF THE FRAGMENTS	45
THE ANCIENT TESTIMONIA WITH ENGLISH TRANSLATION	99
COMMENTARY	269
APPENDIX	389
I Zeno's argument about magnitude	389
II Zeno's argument about numerability	394
III Zeno's paradox of the arrow	395
IV Melissus' argument against pluralism	397
CONCORDANCE	400
I Fragments	400
II Testimonia	401
INDEXES & GLOSSARY	403
I TESTIMONIA	405
1. Ancient Authors	405
2. English-Greek Glossary	406
3. Greek-English Index	421
II COMMENTARY	451
1. Subjects	451
2. Greek words and phrases	452
III PROPER NAMES IN THE INTRODUCTION, COMMENTARY AND APPENDIX	457