

Contents

Introduction	1
François Recanati, Isidora Stojanovic, and Neftali Villanueva
1. Implicit content (1): philosophical perspectives
Unarticulated tension	19
Lenny Clapp
What is said	51
Kepa Korta and John Perry
Context dependency in thought	69
Agustín Vicente
2. Implicit content (2): linguistic perspectives
Contextual domain restriction and the definite determiner	93
Urtzi Etxeberria and Anastasia Giannakidou
The model theory for words with context-sensitive implicit arguments	127
Brendan Gillon
Three types of ellipsis	141
Jason Merchant
3. Relativism, knowledge ascriptions, and predicates of personal taste
Relativism, disagreement, and predicates of personal taste	195
Barry C. Smith
Knowledge attributions and relevant epistemic standards	225
Dan Zeman

4. Perspectival shifts

On words and thoughts about oneself 253
James Higginbotham

Indirect discourse, relativism, and contexts that point
to other contexts 283
Christopher Gauker

5. Perspectival facts

Is relativity a requirement for mind-dependence? 317
Eyja M. Brynjarsdóttir

Perspectival truth and perspectival realism 333
Giuliano Torrengo

Index of names 349

Index of subjects 353