Ethics of Care
Volume I
2011

1. Ethics of care, compassion and recognition
   Annelies van Heijst and Carlo Leget

FOUNDATIONS

2. To be is to care: a philosophical-ethical analysis of care with a view from nursing
   Linus Vanlaere and Chris Gastmans

3. Democracy becomes care; Care becomes democracy
   Joan C. Tronto

4. Things to do with stories
   Hilde Lindemann

COMPASSION

5. The paradoxes of pity
   Emmanuel Housset

6. Ethics of care, asymmetry, recognition, pity and self-management
   Mieke Grypdonck

7. Compassion in the context of an academic medical center
   Carlo Leget

8. The perspective of intellectual disability care on asymmetry in the care-relationship: towards empowering compassion
   Axel Liégeois
RECOGNITION

9. Justice, care and (the) recognition (of dependency and vulnerability)
   Christa Schnabl
   131

10. The shared premises of the ethics of care and theories of recognition: Vulnerability as moral category
    Estelle Ferrarese
    143

11. Humane dignity
    Margaret Urban Walker
    163

12. Relationship based care and recognition. Part one: sketching good care from the theory of presence and five entries
    Andries Baart and Frans Vosman
    183

    Frans Vosman and Andries Baart
    201

LITERATURE
   229

CONTRIBUTORS
   243

INDEX
   247