

Contents

Acknowledgments	ix
Introduction: A Modern Moral Imperative Maurice Hamington and Dorothy C. Miller	xi
PART I: CARE, SOCIETY, AND THE STATE
1 Vicious Circles of Privatized Caring Joan Tronto	3
2 Caring and Social Policy Nel Noddings	27
3 Care and Order: State Reformation and the Feminization of Liberalism Eloise A. Buker	49
4 South African Social Welfare Policy: An Analysis through the Ethic of Care Selma Sevenhuijsen, Vivienne Bozalek, Amanda Gouws, and Marie Minnaar-Mcdonald	69
5 The Potential of Same-Sex Marriage for Restructuring Care and Citizenship Dorothy C. Miller	89
6 An Inverted Home: Socializing Care at Hull-House Maurice Hamington	105

7	From “Giving Care” to “Taking Care”: Negotiating Care Work at Welfare’s End Deborah L. Little	121
PART II: CARE IN SOCIAL ACTION AND CONTEXT
8	The Curious Case of Care and Restorative Justice in the U.S. Context Margaret Urban Walker	145
9	Ethical Globalization? States, Corporations, and the Ethics of Care Fiona Robinson	163
10	Care as a Cause: Framing the Twenty-First-Century Mothers’ Movement Judith Stadtman Tucker	183
11	A Public Ethic of Care: Implications for Long-Term Care Cheryl Brandsen	205
	Index	227
	About the Editors and Contributors	231