

Contents

PART I

PERSONAL

Autobiographical Notes	Page 9
Memories	22
The Education of an Englishman	36
England and the Narrow Seas	47
An Appeal to Sanity	61

PART II

PHILOSOPHY

Immortality	85
Mathematics and the Good	105
Process and Reality	122
John Dewey and His Influence	128
Analysis of Meaning	131
Uniformity and Contingency	141

PART III

EDUCATION

The Study of the Past—Its Uses and Its Dangers	159
Education and Self-Education	174
Mathematics and Liberal Education	184
Science in General Education	199
Historical Changes	210
Harvard: the Future	218

PART IV

SCIENCE

The First Physical Synthesis	237
Axioms of Geometry	256

Mathematics	Page 282
Einstein's Theory	303
Acknowledgments	315