

CONTENTS

The Intentional Structure of the Image

PART ONE

THE CERTAIN

1 DESCRIPTION

| | |
|---|----|
| The Method | 3 |
| First Characteristic: The Image Is a Consciousness | 4 |
| Second Characteristic: The Phenomenon of Quasi Observation | 8 |
| Third Characteristic: The Imaginative Conscious- ness Posits Its Object as Nothingness | 14 |
| Fourth Characteristic: Spontaneity | 18 |

2 THE IMAGE FAMILY

| | |
|--|----|
| Image, Portrait, Caricature | 22 |
| The Sign and the Portrait | 27 |
| From Sign to Image: The Consciousness of Imi- tations | 34 |
| From Sign to Image: Schematic Drawings | 40 |
| Faces in the Fire, Spots on Walls, Rocks in Human Form | 49 |
| Hypnagogic Images, Scenes and Persons Seen in Coffee-Grounds, In a Crystal Ball | 52 |
| From the Portrait to the Mental Image | 71 |
| The Mental Image | 74 |

PART TWO THE PROBABLE

| | |
|---|-----|
| Knowledge | 81 |
| Affectivity | 96 |
| Movements | 104 |
| The Role of the Word in the Mental Image | 119 |
| How the Thing Appears in the Mental Image | 124 |

PART THREE
THE ROLE OF THE IMAGE
IN MENTAL LIFE

| | |
|---|-----|
| The Symbol | 137 |
| Symbolic Schemes and Illustrations of Thought | 151 |
| Image and Thought | 160 |

PART FOUR THE IMAGINARY LIFE

| | |
|------------------------------|-----|
| Image and Perception | 171 |
| The Unreal Object | 177 |
| The Unreal and Behavior | 194 |
| Pathology of the Imagination | 213 |
| The Dream | 231 |

CONCLUSION

| | |
|-------------------------------|-----|
| Consciousness and Imagination | 259 |
| The Work of Art | 273 |