

TABLE OF CONTENTS

INTRODUCTION	1
PART I. CULTURAL RESOURCES
Chapter I. The Understanding of the Human Person and Society in Traditional and Modern African Cultures (Albertine) Tshibilondi Ngoyi	11
Chapter II. Social Structure and Cultural Field in the Humanization of Social Life: The Problem of Democracy Gytis Vaitkunas	31
Chapter III. The Ambiguity of a Culture and Its Freedom to Choose Ion Bansoiu	47
Chapter IV. Valid Concepts: A Case of Policy-Oriented Research Florencio R. Riguera	61
Chapter V. The Story of Man: Humanization of Social Life Prabhakara M. Rao	93
PART II. HISTORICAL RESPONSES
Chapter VI. The Eternal Church in a Changing World: The Relationship of the Church and World in the Thought of John Paul II Maciej Zieba, O.P.	141
Chapter VII. Transcendence and Social Change: Individualism as a Religious and Theological Issue Joseph G. Donders	151
Chapter VIII. The Hermeneutics of Mediation in Ramon Llull: Blanquerna as a Thirteenth-Century Parable Roberto J. Gonzalez-Casanovas	161
Chapter IX. Democratic Revolutions: A Partial Historical Retrospective Ronald S. Calinger	179
Chapter X. 'Coming to Value' vs 'Having Values': Building Democracy in the Contemporary Mexican Peasant Movement Michael W. Foley	215
Chapter XI. The Polish-American Experience in Multi-Ethnic America: Exercises in Measuring and Searching for Meaning John A. Kromkowski	245
Chapter XII. Modernization and the Left Tamas Toth	287

Chapter XIII. The Renewal of Social Life through Dwelling Environments: Implications for an Ethical Architectural Practice Stephen H. Kendall	299
Epilogue. War: Inevitable or Now Obsolete? Paul Peachey	303
Appendix. Reports of Seminars on the Humanization of Social Life: The Dilemmas of Change	307
INDEX	341