

---

Contents

|   |   |     |
|---|---|-----|
| Anthony M. Paul   | Preface  | vii |
| G. H. von Wright  | Introduction   | 1   |
| Part I: Logic, Philosophy of Language, Epistemology, and the Philosophy of Science |   |     |
| A. Logic, Philosophy of Language, and Semiotics                                    |   |     |
| G. H. von Wright  | Some Observations on Modal Logic and Philosophical Systems   | 17  |
| Lennart Åqvist  | On the Analysis and Logic of Questions   | 27  |
| Ingemund Gullvåg  | Reference and the Object Theory  | 41  |
| Erik Stenius  | The Concepts 'Analytic' and 'Synthetic'  | 57  |
| Göran Hermerén  | Symbolic and Symptomatic Expression  | 77  |
| B. Epistemology and the Philosophy of Mind   |   |     |
| Justus Hartnack   | Beliefs and Dispositions   | 99  |
| Jaakko Hintikka   | Different Constructions in Terms of the Basic Epistemological Terms: A Survey of Some Problems and Proposals | 105 |
| Dag Prawitz   | The Philosophical Position of Proof Theory   | 123 |
| C. Philosophy of Science   |   |     |
| Sören Halldén   | Is Probability a Normative Concept?  | 137 |
| Risto Hilpinen  | Decision-Theoretic Approaches to Rules of Acceptance   | 147 |
| Håkan Törnebohm   | A Foundational Study of Einstein's Special Space-Time Theory   | 169 |

Part II: Ethics, and Political and Legal Philosophy*A. Moral and Legal Logic, and Language

|                              |   |     |
|------------------------------|---|-----|
| Lars Bergström               | Meaning and Morals   | 185 |
| Alf Ross                     | The Rise and Fall of theDoctrine of Performatives     | 197 |
| Stig Kanger and Helle Kanger | Rights and Parliamentarism                                 | 213 |
| Anders Wedberg               | Some Problems in the Logical Analysis ofLegal Science | 237 |

B. Legal and Moral Philosophy, and Philosophical Ideology

|                  |   |     |
|------------------|---|-----|
| Ingemar Hedenius | The Criminal Law and Morals                                | 259 |
| Manfred Moritz   | Indeterminism, Determinism,and Definitions of Freedom | 271 |
| Harald Ofstad    | Responsibility and Freedom                                 | 285 |
| Anfinn Stigen    | Philosophy as World View andPhilosophy as Discipline  | 307 |
| Knut Erik Tranöy | The Ideology of Scientific and ScholarlyConduct       | 331 |

Part III: Philosophy of History, and Historical and Interpretive Studies*A. Philosophy and Methodology of History

|                  |  |     |
|------------------|--|-----|
| Gunnar Aspelin   | On the Selection of Facts in History  | 355 |
| Herman Tennessen | On What There Was: Toward anEmpirical, Experimentally OrientedBehavioral Science of History | 365 |

B. History of Philosophy

|                   |   |     |
|-------------------|---|-----|
| Egil A. Wyller    | The Architectonic ofPlato's Later Dialogues               | 381 |
| Arne Naess        | Pyrrhonism Revisited   | 393 |
| Jan Berg          | Bolzano's Theory of an Ideal Language                          | 405 |
| Dagfinn Føllesdal | An Introduction to Phenomenology forAnalytic Philosophers | 417 |
| Guttorm Fløistad  | On Understanding Heidegger:Some Difficulties              | 431 |

C. Scandinavian Philosophy

|                      |  |     |
|----------------------|--|-----|
| Johannes Sløk        | Kierkegaard as Existentialist                               | 457 |
| Mogens Blegvad       | The Philosophy of Value ofHarald Høffding              | 465 |
| Konrad Marc-Wogau    | Axel Hägerström's Ontology                                  | 479 |
| Johannes Witt-Hansen | The Impact of Niels Bohr's Thought onDanish Philosophy | 491 |