

Contents

1	Introduction: The Wide-Ranging Impact of Edith Stein’s Thought—New Approaches, Applications, and Insights .....	1
	Antonio Calcagno
Part I Women
2	From the “Neutral” Human Being to Gender Difference: Phenomenological and Dual Anthropology in Edith Stein.....	11
	Angela Ales Bello
3	Women in Society: The Critical Potential of Stein’s Feminism for Our Understanding of the State.....	25
	Mette Lebech
4	Women’s Existence, Woman’s Soul: Essence and Existence in Edith Stein’s Later Feminism .....	35
	Laura Judd Beer
Part II Ethics and Social and Political Philosophy
5	Intersubjectivity and Community in Edith Stein’s Thought .....	49
	Anna Maria Pezzella
6	Eternal Life: A Phenomenological Exploration from the Perspective of Edith Stein’s Description of Person and Community.....	65
	Jennie D. Latta
7	The Individuality of the Human Person in the Phenomenological Works of Edith Stein .....	73
	Christof Betschart
8	The Inseparability of Consciousness from Embodiment in the Phenomenology of Edith Stein .....	87
	Paulina Monjaraz Fuentes

9	The Influence of Adolf Reinach on Edith Stein’s Concept of the State: Similarities and Differences .....	93
	Eduardo González-Di Pierro
10	Edith Stein on Autism .....	107
	Kathleen M. Haney
Part III Theology
11	A Phenomenology of Ethics and Excess: Experiences of Givenness and Transcendence According to Edith Stein .....	119
	Michael F. Andrews
12	Feeling as the Bond Between Soul and Body in St. John of the Cross, The Living Flame of Love .....	133
	Juan Francisco Pinilla
13	Science and Theology: Toward a Steinian Perspective .....	153
	Marian Maskulak
14	Soul Power: Edith Stein’s Meta-Phenomenological Construction of the Human Soul .....	167
	Donald L. Wallenfang
15	Martyrdom as Perfection of Life in the Christian Tradition and in Edith Stein’s Thinking .....	181
	Harm Klueting
Part IV Metaphysics
16	Essential Being and Existential Metaphysics .....	197
	Thomas Gricoski
17	Stein and Pfänder on the Expression of Truth .....	213
	Walter Redmond
Part V Biography and Public History
18	Edith Stein and Theatrical Truth .....	227
	Joyce Avrech Berkman
19	The Bergzabern Circle: Toward a More Comprehensive View of Edith Stein .....	239
	Joachim Feldes
20	Edith Stein and “Secretum meum mihi”: Are Religious Conversions Necessarily Private? .....	253
	Ken Casey

21 Stein the Educator in Autobiography, Writing, and Biography .....	267
Pamela Fitzpatrick
22 Role for Edith Stein in Her Own Promotion? .....	273
John Sullivan	