

Contents

- 1 Decision-making under Moral Uncertainty 3
 - Moral Uncertainty as a Practical Problem* 4
 - Rationality and Moral Uncertainty* 9
 - Why Have Ethicists Ignored Decision-making under Moral Uncertainty?* 16
- 2 Principles for Decision-making under Moral Uncertainty 22
 - Applying PR2* 41
 - Moral Luck* 46
- 3 Abortion and Moral Uncertainty 50
 - Making Decisions about Abortion* 51
 - Abortion Decisions and Moral Uncertainty* 53
 - Other Morally Problematic Abortion Decisions* 67
 - Conclusions* 72
- 4 Degrees of Moral Rightness 74
 - The Need for Moral Hedging* 75
 - The Possibility of Moral Hedging* 76
 - The Case for Degrees of Moral Rightness* 80

Abortion and Degrees of Moral Rightness 92
Conclusions 96

5 Shall I Act Supererogatorily? 98

Supererogationism 99

A Case Study: How Much Shall I Contribute to International Relief? 101

The Argument against Supererogationism 107

Rational Limits on Altruism 108

Conclusions 110

6 Confidentiality and Moral Uncertainty 111

Professions and Obligations of Confidentiality 112

A Case Study in Medical Ethics 113

Conclusions 122

7 A Decision-Theoretic Reconstruction of Roe v. Wade 124

The Argument in Roe v. Wade 125

Decision Theory and the Abortion Policy Question 133

Conclusions 140

8 Long-Run Morality 143

Courses of Action and Their Morality 144

Real-World Moral Decision-making 153

Collective Decision-making about Courses of Action 158

Antiaging Technologies 161

Utopian Implications 163

9 Retrospective 169

Appendix: Decisions with Uncertain Probabilities 171

Notes 177

Index 207