

Contents

Preface	ix
1 Introduction	1
I Reich's Question	1
II Method	3
III Background Beliefs	7
IV Society as a System and 'Political False Consciousness'	9
V Ideas and Historical Narrative	11
VI The Rise of 'Social Science'	14
VII Rationalism	16
VIII Providentialism	22
IX Marx and the Frankfurt School	24
X Preview	28
2 The Forms of False Consciousness	30
I Analysis	30
II The Scope of 'False Consciousness'	31
III Ideological Irrationality	43
IV Is all Ideological Consciousness Irrational?	48
V Is all Ideological Consciousness 'False'?	51
3 Rationalism and False Consciousness	54
I Rationalism and Pessimism: Plato and Augustine	57
II Political Humanism, Tyranny and Deception: De la Boetie and Machiavelli	61

III	The Changing Passions	65
IV	Amour-propre	67
V	Religious False Consciousness	69
VI	Rousseau: Amour-propre and False Consciousness	80
VII	Adam Smith: Sympathy and Authority	95
VIII	Conclusion	99
4	Unintended Consequences and the Idea of a Social System	101
I	Antecedents: Aristotle and Augustine	102
II	Bossuet and Providentialism	108
III	Vico	115
IV	The Four Stages Theory	117
V	Adam Smith: Unintended Consequences and the 'Invisible Hand'	120
VI	The Problem of Development	129
VII	The 'Organic' against the 'Mechanical': Herder	133
VIII	The 'Organic' against the 'Mechanical': Kant and Schiller	141
5	Hegel	146
I	Division and Nature	147
II	Development	150
III	History and Freedom	152
IV	Geist and the Individual	157
V	False Consciousness: the Phenomenology of Spirit	161
VI	Schein	164
VII	The Overcoming of 'False Consciousness'	166
6	Marx	168
I	The Emergence of the Theory of Ideology	169
II	The Critique of Religion	173
III	The 'Reflection' Model	179
IV	The 'Interests' Model	181
V	The Correspondence Model	184
VI	Essence and Appearance	200
VII	A Hegelian Marx?	207
VIII	Unified Labour?	219
7	Critical Theory	223
I	The 'Aura'	224
II	Adorno's Transformation of Idealism	226
III	Benjamin's Marxism	234
IV	Anti-Rationalism and False Consciousness	243

CONTENTS

vii

V Ideology and Anti-Realist Epistemology: Horkheimer and Habermas	251
VI Conclusion	257
8 The Theory of Ideology and Beyond	258
I Arguments against the Theory of Ideology	258
II Compliance without False Consciousness: The Coordination Problem	260
III Non-Ideological False Consciousness	262
IV Ideology as False Consciousness	270
V Beyond Rationalism and Providentialism	272
Bibliography	276
Index	283