

Sellars and the History of Modern Philosophy

Edited by Luca Corti and
Antonio M. Nunziante

 Routledge
Taylor & Francis Group
NEW YORK AND LONDON

Contents

Introduction: The lingua franca of Thought. Wilfrid Sellars and the History of Philosophy	1
LUCA CORTI AND ANTONIO M. NUNZIANTE
PART I
Sellars and Modern Philosophy	13
1 Sellars on Descartes	15
CHRISTIAN BARTH
2 The lingua franca of Nominalism: Sellars on Leibniz	36
ANTONIO M. NUNZIANTE
3 Sellars and Hume on the Ontological Status of Theoretical-Explanatory Entities	59
DAVID LANDY
4 Sellars's Interpretive Variations on Kant's Transcendental Idealist Themes	79
JAMES R. O'SHEA
5 Hegel After Sellars: Conceptual Connections	97
LUCA CORTI
PART II
Sellars and the Beginning of the Contemporary Age	117
6 Peirce and Sellars on Nonconceptual Content	119
CATHERINE LEGG

vi	Contents
7	Sellars and Frege on Concepts and Laws DANIELLE MACBETH	138
8	“We pragmatists mourn Sellars as a Lost Leader”: Sellars’s Pragmatist Distinction Between Signifying and Picturing CARL B. SACHS	157
9	The Varieties and Origins of Wilfrid Sellars’s Behaviorism PETER OLEN	178
10	Sellars and Carnap: Science and/or Metaphysics CARLO GABBANI	197
11	Sellars and Wittgenstein, Early and Late GUIDO BONINO AND PAOLO TRIPODI	216
12	Wilfrid Sellars and Roy Wood Sellars: Theoretical Continuities and Methodological Divergences FABIO GIRONI	233
	Conclusions	255
13	Thinking With Sellars and Beyond Sellars: On the Relations Between Philosophy and the History of Philosophy DIONYSIS CHRISTIAS	257
	Index	277