

THE REIGN OF RELATIVITY

Philosophy in Physics 1915-1925

Thomas Ryckman

OXFORD
UNIVERSITY PRESS

2005

CONTENTS

1. Introduction	3
2. General Covariance and the "Relativized A Priori ": Two Roads from Kant	13
3. 1921: "Critical or Empiricist Interpretation of the New Physics?"	47
4. Einstein Agonists : Weyl and Reichenbach	77
5. Transcendental-Phenomenological Idealism: Husserl and Weyl	108
6. Weyl's "Purely Infinitesimal" Constitution of Field Physics	145
7. "World Building": Structuralism and Transcendental Idealism in Eddington	177
8. Geometrizing Physics: Eddington's Theory of the Affine Field	218
9. Epilogue: The "Geometrization of Physics" and Transcendental Idealism	235
Appendix to Chapter 2: Michael Friedman and the "Relativized A Priori "	245
Notes	251
References	289
Index	311