

Bioethical Prescriptions

TO CREATE, END, CHOOSE, AND IMPROVE LIVES

F. M. Kamm

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments ix
Introduction xi

PART ONE Death and Dying

1. Rescuing Ivan Ilych: How We Live and How We Die 3
2. Conceptual Issues Related to Ending Life 33
3. Problems with "Assisted Suicide: The Philosophers' Brief" 42
4. Four-Step Arguments for Physician-Assisted Suicide and Euthanasia 53
5. Some Arguments by Velleman Concerning Suicide and Assisted Suicide 84
6. Brody on Active and Passive Euthanasia 99
7. A Note on Dementia and Advance Directives 108
8. Brain Death and Spontaneous Breathing 114

PART TWO Early Life

9. Using Human Embryos for Biomedical Research 137
10. Ethical Issues in Using and Not Using Human Embryonic Stem Cells 152
11. Ronald Dworkin's Views on Abortion 165
12. Creation and Abortion Short 184
13. McMahan on the Ethics of Killing at the Margins of Life 229
14. Some Conceptual and Ethical Issues in Munchausen Syndrome by Proxy 239

PART THREE Genetic and Other Enhancements

15. Genes, Justice, and Obligations in Creating People: Reflections on From Chance to Choice and on Views of Nagel, Shiffrin, and Singer 253
16. Moral Status, Personal Identity, and Substitutability: Clones, Embryos, and Future Generations 291
17. What Is and Is Not Wrong with Enhancement? Evaluating Sandel's Views 326

PART FOUR Allocating Scarce Resources

- 18. Health and Equity 363
- 19. Health and Equality of Opportunity 393
- 20. Is It Morally Permissible to Discontinue Nonfutile Use of a Scarce Resource? 400
- 21. Aggregation, Allocating Scarce Resources, and Discrimination against the Disabled 424
- 22. Rationing and the Disabled: Several Proposals 486
- 23. Learning from Bioethics: Moral Issues in Rationing Medical and Nonmedical Scarce Resources 506

PART FIVE Methodology

- 24. The Philosopher as Insider and Outsider: How to Advise, Compromise, and Criticize 527
- 25. Theory and Analogy in Law and Philosophy 551
- 26. Types of Relations between Theory and Practice: High Theory, Low Theory, and Applying Applied Ethics 568
- 27. Understanding, Justifying, and Finding Oneself 577

Index 585