

NEGARA

The Theatre State in Nineteenth-Century Bali

CLIFFORD GEERTZ

PRINCETON UNIVERSITY PRESS

CONTENTS

Illustrations	ix
Preface	xi
INTRODUCTION Bali and Historical Method	3
CHAPTER 1 Political Definition: The Sources of Order
The Myth of the Exemplary Center	11
Geography and the Balance of Power	19
CHAPTER 2 Political Anatomy: The Internal Organization of the Ruling Class
Descent Groups and Sinking Status	26
Clientship	34
Alliance	39
CHAPTER 3 Political Anatomy: The Village and the State
The Village Polity	45
The Perbekel System	54
The Politics of Irrigation	68
The Forms of Trade	87
CHAPTER 4 Political Statement: Spectacle and Ceremony
The Symbolology of Power	98
The Palace as Temple	109
Cremation and the Struggle for Status	116
CONCLUSION Bali and Political Theory	121
Notes	137
Glossary	259
Bibliography	267
Index	289