

The Metaphysical Foundations of Love

Aquinas on Participation, Unity, and Union

ANTHONY T. FLOOD

The Catholic University of America Press

Washington, D.C.

Contents

Acknowledgments	vii
Introduction	ix
1. Love as a Unitive Force	1
Union and Friendship	1
Unity and the Love of Self	11
From Unity to Union	18
2. Degrees of Union	25
Distinctions Pertaining to the Unions of Similitude and Possession	25
The Equalizing Effect of Charity	32
Marriage as the Greatest Human Union	35
3. Participation and the Love of God	44
The Love of Self and the Love of God	44
The Natural Inclination to the Love of God	50
The Supernatural Love of God	56
4. Conformity and Sin	67
The Necessity of Conformity	67
Sin and Hatred	71
Satan and Temptation	80

5. The Fulfillment of Love in God	85
Love and Self-Governance	85
Love and Worship	91
Love and Obedience to the Divine Will	97
6. The Love of Self and Subjectivity	110
The Love of Self and Conscious Self-Experience	110
Participation, Irreducibility, and Omnisubjectivity	120
Subjectivity in Light of Charity	127
Conclusion	134
Bibliography	139
Index	145