

Cuban Communism

1959-2003

Irving Louis Horowitz
Jaime Suchlicki
editors

11th Edition

Transaction Publishers
New Brunswick (U.S.A.) and London (U.K.)

Contents

Acknowledgments	ix
INTRODUCTION	xiii
Irving Louis Horowitz and Jaime Suchlicki
Part 1 History
1 One Hundred Years of Ambiguity: U.S.-Cuba Relations in the 20 th Century	3
Irving Louis Horowitz
2. Cuba: The United States and Batista, 1952-1958	12
Hugh Thomas
3. The Sierra and the Plains	21
Roberto Luque Escalona
4. Guerrillas at War	36
Marta San Martín and Ramón L. Bonachea
5. Learning from the Missile Crisis	58
Max Frankel
6. Immutable Proclamations and Unintended Consequences	69
Luis E. Aguilar
7. Fidelismo: The Unfulfilled Ideology	86
Tad Szulc
Part 2 Economy
8. The Cuban Economy in 1999-2001: Evaluation of Performance	99
Carmelo Mesa-Lago
9. Labor Conditions in Revolutionary Cuba	122
Efren Córdova and Eduardo García Moure

vi Cuban Communism

10. The Political Economy of Caudillismo 134
Mary Katherine Crabb
11. Market-Oriented Marxism: Post-Cold War Transition 154
in Cuba and Vietnam
Julie M. Bunck
12. Waiting for Godot: Cuba's Stalled Reforms and Continuing 176
Economic Crisis
Jorge F. Pérez López
13. Cuba's Transition from Communism to Political and 198
Economic Freedom
Antonio Jorge
14. Economic Organizations and Post-Castro Cuba 210
Ernesto F. Betancourt
- Part 3 Society
15. Searching for Civil Society in Cuba 225
Damian J. Fernandez
16. The Conventionalization of Collective Behavior 241
Benigno E. Aguirre
17. The Internet and U.S. Policy toward Cuba 266
Taylor C. Boas
18. Women, Family and the Cuban Revolution 276
Marisela Fleites Lear
19. Health Care in Cuba 303
Tim Golden
20. Cuba's Refugees: Manifold Migrations 308
Silvia Pedraza
21. The Moral Basis of Cuban Society 329
Emilio Ichikawa Morin
- Part 4 Military
22. Political-Military Relations from 1959 to the Present 343
Phyllis Greene Walker

23. Vanguard of the State: The Cuban Armed Forces in Transition Juan Carlos Espinosa	366
24. Military Origin and Evolution of the Cuban Revolution Irving Louis Horowitz	388
25. The Cuban Armed Forces: Changing Roles, Continued Loyalties Juan M. del Aguila	415
26. Cuban Military Influences on Political and Economic Decision-Making Jaime Suchlicki	428
Part 5 Polity
27. Why the Cuban Regime Has Not Fallen Jorge I. Domínguez	435
28. Cuba: Without Subsidies Jaime Suchlicki	443
29. Cuba: Economic Sanctions and American Diplomacy Susan Kaufman Purcell	451
30. Cuba and the United States: Back to the Beginning Mark Falcoff	471
31. Much Ado About Something?: Regime Change in Cuba Eusebio Mujal-León and Joshua W. Busby	491
32. The Cuban Revolution and Its Acolytes Carlos Alberto Montaner	513
33. After Fidel, What?: Forecasting Institutional Changes in Cuba Josep M. Colomer	523
Part 6 Transition to Civil Society
34. The United States and Cuba: Future Security Issues Brian Latell	541
35. Role of the United States and International Lending Institutions in Cuba's Transition Sergio Díaz-Briquets	555

36. Three Variations on Communist Successor Regimes Edward Gonzalez	569
37. Festina Lente—The United States and Cuba After Castro Michael Radu	590
38. Humanitarian Assistance during a Democratic Transition in Cuba Andrew S. Natsios	607
39. Economic and Social Disparities in Cuba: Recommendations for Change Carmelo Mesa-Lago	620

APPENDICES

I. Chronology of the Cuban Revolution: 1959–2002	637
II. Current and Past Revolutionary Leaders	678
III. Chronology of Cuba and the Middle East: 2000–2002	695
IV. Castro and Terrorism: Chronology and Glossary	699
V. Fidel Castro on the United States: Selected Statements, 1958-2003	711
Contributors	729