

Contents

	Page
Translators' preface	ix
Preface	xxi
 Introduction
Theory of knowledge, metaphysics and other philosophical disciplines	 i
 Part I The theory of knowledge
1 Classical problems of the theory of knowledge	7
2 The problem of truth	9
The classical definition of truth and objections to it	9
Truth as agreement with criteria	11
Nonclassical definitions of truth	12
A proper formulation of the classical concept of truth	17
Scepticism and its refutation	18
Nonclassical definitions of truth as leading to idealism	21
3 Problems of the source of knowledge	22
Psychological and epistemological versions of this problem	22
Apriorism and empiricism	25
Radical apriorism	26

	Page
Radical empiricism	27
Moderate empiricism	27
Moderate apriorism	29
The dispute between empiricism and apriorism about the character of mathematical assertions	30
Pure and applied mathematics	31
A view of moderate empiricism	35
A view of radical empiricism	36
Conventionalism	36
A view of moderate apriorism: the teaching of Kant	38
The essence of a priori cognition according to phenomenologists	42
Rationalism and irrationalism	45
4 The problem of the limits of knowledge	50
Two meanings of transcendence	50
Immanent epistemological idealism	52
Perception and its object	54
Transcendental epistemological idealism	56
Kant as representative of transcendental idealism	59
Realism	61
Positivism	62
Neopositivism	65
5 The relation of the theory of knowledge to the other philosophical sciences	69
Part II Metaphysics
6 The origin of the term 'metaphysics' and the division of problems	73
The origin of the word 'metaphysics'	73
The division of metaphysical problems	74
7 Ontology	76
The tasks of ontology	76
Examples of concepts analysed by ontology	78
Ontological assertions	80

	Page
8 Metaphysical inferences from reflections on knowledge	82
The problem of ideal objects: the controversy about universals Platonic ideas, Universals, The contemporary form of the dispute about universals	82
The problem of metaphysical idealism	85
(a) Subjective idealism, The consequences of epistemological idealism, The thesis of subjective idealism, Reality and its appearance in the light of subjective idealism
(b) Objective idealism, The inadequacies of subjective idealism, Judgements in the psychological sense and judgements in the logical sense, The world of objective spirit, The thesis of objective idealism, Representatives of objective idealism, Hegel's dialectic, The dialectic of Hegel and the dialectic of Marx
(c) Metaphysical realism, Naive and critical realism
9 Metaphysical problems arising from the investigation of nature	101
The problem of the substance and structure of the world	101
The problem of soul and body	102
What substances exist in nature?, Dualism, Extreme and moderate dualism, Monism and its varieties, Materialism, Mechanical materialism, Dialectical materialism, Materialism in conflict with idealism, Materialism in conflict with dualism, A general characterisation of materialism, The relation of physical to mental phenomena, Emotional sources of opposition to materialism, Spiritualism, Monism proper: the identity theory, Immanent monism
Determinism and indeterminism	128
The controversy about the causal constitution of nature, Analysis and criticism of the concept of cause, The problem of prediction, Are the laws of nature only statistical laws?, Freedom of the will, The problem of the existence of the future
Mechanism and finalism	137
The controversy about the purposive arrangement of the world, Anthropomorphic purposiveness, Biological mechanism and vitalism, A non-anthropomorphic concept

	Page
of purposive constitution, Neovitalists, Holism, Utilitarian purposiveness, Optimism and pessimism
10 Metaphysical problems arising from religion	151
The religious concept of deity	151
The immortality of the soul	152
Religious metaphysics	152
The philosophical concept of deity	153
Proofs of the existence of God	154
God and the world	155
Atheism	156
The problem of the immortality of the soul among philosophers	157
Religious metaphysics and ethics	158
11 Metaphysics as the attempt to achieve an ultimate world-outlook	160
Concluding remarks	169