

Contents

Preface	vii
Acknowledgments	xiii
PART ONE: Structuralism and Linguistic Models
1 The Linguistic Foundation	3
Langue, parole	8
Relations	10
Signs	16
Discovery procedures	20
'Generative' or 'transformational'	24
Consequences and implications	26
2 The Development of a Method: Two Examples	32
The language of fashion	32
Mythological logic	40
3 Jakobson's Poetic Analyses	55
4 Greimas and Structural Semantics	75
5 Linguistic Metaphors in Criticism	96
The work as system	98
The work as semiotic project	103
PART TWO: Poetics
6 Literary Competence	113
7 Convention and Naturalization	131
Écriture, lecture	131

The 'real'	140
Cultural vraisemblance	141
Models of a genre	145
The conventionally natural	148
Parody and irony	152
8 Poetics of the Lyric	161
Distance and deixis	164
Organic wholes	170
Theme and epiphany	175
Resistance and recuperation	178
9 Poetics of the Novel	189
Lisibilité, illisibilité	189
Narrative contracts	192
Codes	202
Plot	205
Theme and symbol	224
Character	230
PART THREE: Perspectives
10 'Beyond' Structuralism: Tel Quel	241
11 Conclusion: Structuralism and the Qualities of Literature	255
Notes	267
Bibliography	273
Index	295