

CONTENTS

|  |     |
|--|-----|
| Foreword   | vii |
| I. Introductory essay: Some Aspects of the Encounter of Psychoanalysis and Existential Philosophy | xii |
| Hendrik M. Ruitenbeek  |     |
| II. Existentialism and Psychotherapy  | 3   |
| Paul Tillich   |     |
| III. Existential Analysis and Psychotherapy   | 17  |
| Ludwig Binswanger  |     |
| IV. The Theory and Practice of Existential Analysis   | 24  |
| W. Van Dusen   |     |
| V. Ontological Insecurity   | 41  |
| R. D. Laing  |     |
| VI. Psychotherapy, Existence and Religion   | 70  |
| Thomas Hora  |     |
| VII. "Daseinsanalysis" and Psychotherapy  | 81  |
| Medard Boss  |     |
| VIII. The Human Body and the Significance of Human Movement                                       | 90  |
| J. H. Van Den Berg   |     |
| IX. Existential Psychiatry and Group Psychotherapy  | 130 |
| Thomas Hora  |     |
| X. The Phenomenological Approach to the Problem of Feelings and Emotions                          | 155 |
| F. J. J. Buýtendijk  |     |

|      |   |     |
|------|---|-----|
| XI.  | Dangers in the Relation of Existentialism to Psychotherapy | 179 |
|      | Rollo May   |     |
| XII. | An Appraisal of Existential Analysis                       | 188 |
|      | Eugen Kahn  |     |
|      | Bibliography  | 255 |