

CONTENTS

EDITOR'S PREFACE	page vii
NOTE ON SYMBOLISM	xvii

NOTEBOOK I [c. 1919]

1. Facts and propositions	3
2. Necessity	5
3. Inference	7
4. Memory	9
5. Causality	10
6. Classes	13
7. Explanation	16
8. Functions	17
9. Colours	18
10. Colours	20
11. Substantives and adjectives	22
12. Judgment and multiple relations	25
13. Acquaintance	29
14. Pleasure, pain and desire	31
15. Pleasure and pain	32
16. Pleasure—pain	34
17. Desire	36
18. Nicky's desires	37
19. Good	38
20. Events	39
21. Change	41
22. Change	43
23. Language	44
24. Language	47
25. Sense-data	49

	page
— 26. Universals	50
27. Recognition	56
28. Shape	57
29. Colour	58
30. Discrimination	63
31. [No title]	68
32. Looking	70
33. Language	72
34. Sense-data and physical objects	73
35. Sense-data and physical objects	78

NOTEBOOK II [c. 1926]

1. Whitehead's "Principles of Natural Knowledge"	83
2. Events	85
3. The present	87
4. Number	90
5. Absolute and relative time	91
6. Belief and multiple relations	93
7. Propositional functions	95
8. The present	97
9. Present	100
10. Functions	102
11. Causality and induction	104
12. Species of a property	105
13. External world	106
14. Proper names, connotation, denotation, etc.	107
15. Vicious infinite series	109
16. Characterising	110
17. The present	111

NOTEBOOK III (late 1930s to 1940)

	page
1. Knowledge and belief	115
2. Kant on "outer objects"	116
3. Motion and rest	118
4. Sense-data	119
5. Hume on "continued existence" of bodies	121
6. Cogito, ergo sum	122
7. Is "believe" always dispositional?	126
8. The same pain	127
9. Self-contradiction, and "no answer to"	129
10. Certainty and sensations	130
11. Different senses of "see"	133
12. Neither unquestionably correct nor un- questionably incorrect	134
13. Sense-data and "looking"	136
14. Motion	139
15. Shadows, patches of light, etc.	142
16. Time: what is a second?	143
17. Seeing	144
18. Seeing	145
19. Looking	146
20. Looking	147

NOTEBOOK IV [c. 1941-1942]

1. Looks	151
2. After-images (shut eye) and tautology	152
3. "This" and partial tautology	154
4. "Percepts" and "places" (James)	156
5. "This" and "here"; "that" and "there"	158
6. Scepticism and doubt	159

	page
7. True by definition	160
8. Dreams	161
9. Physical objects and the future	162
10. Definition of "sense-datum"	166
11. "Autonomous" use of words	167
12. Necessity	169
13. The Liar	170
14. Immediate knowledge	173
15. Saying that p	179
16. See	183
17. Possible	184
18. Possible	187

NOTEBOOK V [c. 1942-1943]

1. Russell's definition of "one"	191
2. The Achilles	192
3. Knowledge	193
4. Sense-data and physical objects	194
5. "Recommending" a use of words	196
6. What is fixed by usage?	198
7. External objects	202
8. Perception	203
9. Abstract universals (re Blanshard)	204
10. Universals	205
11. "Perspectives"	208
12. Phenomenalism	210
13. Number	212
14. Velocity of light argument	219
15. "Phases" of continuants	220
16. "Know the meaning of"	223

	page
17. Two meanings of "red"	225
18. Good and bad	226
19. True	228
20. Are all visual sense-data extended?	232
21. Double images	233
22. Places	236
23. [No title]	238
24. "Tautology"	239
25. Köhler on "up" and "down", "right" and "left"	241
26. "Imaginary" and "There are"	243
27. [No title]	246
28. "Exist" and "Real"	247
29. Proper names	248
30. Contradictions	249
31. "Either . . . or"	250
32. $P \supset Q$	251

NOTEBOOK VI (Begun Feb. 1, 1944)

1. Analysis and "analytic"	255
2. Syntax and entailment	258
3. Logical consequence	261
4. $(x) . \phi x$ and ϕa	262
5. Identity	263
6. $(x) . \phi x$ and ϕa	264
7. "Instance"	265
8. Synthetic necessary propositions	266
9. I and my body	267
10. Colours	270

	page
11. "If p, then q"	271
12. "Immediate inference"	273
13. Contradiction	274
14. Internal properties and contradiction	275
15. "It's certain that"	277
16. Common sense	280
17. If	281
18. "Truth-possibilities" (Wittgenstein, 4.28-4.31)	282
19. Wittgenstein's sense of "tautology"	284
20. Internal qualities	287
21. "If . . . then . . ."	289
22. Is true	290
23. Ramsey on "The Liar"	291

NOTEBOOK VII (Begun Feb. 9/46)

1. "If p, then q" and " $p \supset q$ "	295
2. Autonymous	299
3. "The A. of W. might not have been A. of W."	302
4. Sentences and propositions	303
5. Give a definition	309
6. Sentences and propositions	312
7. The Liar	313
8. Words and their meaning	316
9. Entailment	317
10. "True" and "fact"	319
11. That "see" is used in different senses	320
12. "Makes no sense" and "true"	330
13. Russell's view in "External World"	331
14. "If . . . then"	333

NOTEBOOK VIII (Begun at end of 1947)

	page
1. Ethics	339
2. "Either . . . or . . ."	340
3. "p entails q" does not entail "p contains q"	342
4. Adjectives and substantives	343
5. Internal relations	344
6. "If p had been true, q would have been true"	346
7. Johnson	353
8. [No title]	354
9. Propositions and sentences	356
10. Sentences and propositions	359
11. Can you "hear" a proposition?	362

NOTEBOOK IX [1948-1953]

1. Analysis	365
2. Numbers	370
3. Analytic	372
4. Propositions	374
5. "The Epimenides"	378
6. Lewis Carroll's puzzle	385
7. Analytic propositions	388
8. Conditional sentences	389
9. "If . . . then"	391
10. Lewy on entailment	393
11. Self-contradictory	396
12. Laws of contradiction and excluded middle	398

	page
13. Time	400
14. Probable	401
15. McTaggart on time	404
16. [No title]	406
17. Looks	408
18. Free will	409
Index of proper names	411