

TABLE OF CONTENTS

INTRODUCTORY

WHAT IS THE STATE?

I. The state as an association	3
II. The state in terms of sovereignty	8
III. The state in terms of law	17

BOOK ONE

THE EMERGENCE OF THE STATE

I

ORIGINS

I. The family and the social structure	25
II. The social structure and the state	33
III. Authority and class	46

II

THE EARLY EMPIRE

I. The building of empire	51
II. Land power and sea power	60

III

THE EMERGENCE OF CITIZENSHIP

i. The spirit of the city	69
ii. The politics of Greece	74
iii. The city as an inclusive partnership	83
iv. The achievement of Rome	91
v. The evolution of law in Greece and Rome	99
vi. The city and the empire	108

IV

THE FORMATION OF THE COUNTRY-STATE

i. Feudalism	115
ii. The significance of nationality	121
iii. From absolutism towards democracy	133

BOOK TWO

POWERS AND FUNCTIONS

V

THE LIMITS OF POLITICAL CONTROL

i. The things that are not Caesar's	149
ii. The state and the other great associations	165
iii. The business of the state	183

VI

THE RESIDENCE OF AUTHORITY

I. The will of the people	193
II. Representation and responsibility	201
III. Authority and revolution	212

VII

MIGHT AND SOVEREIGNTY

I. Force as the ultima ratio	221
II. The great states as world powers	231
III. The political evolution of war	241

VIII

LAW AND ORDER

I. The nature of law	250
II. The rule of law	263
III. The law and the state	272
IV. International law	281

IX

POLITICAL GOVERNMENT AND THE ECONOMIC ORDER

I. Economic and political power	291
II. The state and the economic life: retrospect and prospect	303

BOOK THREE

FORMS AND INSTITUTIONS

X

FORMATION AND DISSOLUTION

- | | |
|--|-----|
| i. The rise and fall of states | 319 |
| ii. Civilization and culture | 325 |

XI

THE FORMS OF THE STATE

- | | |
|---|-----|
| i. Historical and contemporary types of state | 338 |
| ii. Forms of the dynastic state | 344 |
| iii. Forms of the democratic state | 351 |

XII

THE ARTICULATION OF GOVERNMENTAL POWERS

- | | |
|---|-----|
| i. The division of powers | 364 |
| ii. Checks and balances within a system of government | 375 |
| iii. Central and local government | 390 |

XIII

THE PARTY SYSTEM

- | | |
|---|-----|
| i. The evolution of party | 396 |
| ii. The alinement of party | 406 |
| iii. Multiple parties and the mechanism of government | 416 |

BOOK FOUR

THEORIES AND INTERPRETATIONS

XIV

THE EVOLUTION OF MODERN THEORIES OF THE STATE

I. Introduction : the initial difficulty of all social theory .	423
II. The state as power versus the state as justice	426
III. The state as based on contract	438
IV. The state as a mystical unity	447

XV

POLITICAL THOUGHT OF THE PRESENT

I. The issue between individualism and collectivism .	455
II. The attack on absolute sovereignty	467

XVI

A RE-INTERPRETATION OF THE STATE

I. The state as organ of community	480
II. Concluding reflections on sovereignty	487
III. Wherein unity lies	490
INDEX	495