

CONTENTS

PREFACE	1
CRITICAL REFLECTIONS ON THE SCIENTIFIC METHOD	3
CONCEPTUAL FOUNDATIONS OF THE SCIENTIFIC METHOD	10
1. The Conception of Hypothesis	10
2. The Constitution of Scientific Theory and the Question of Evidence	26
3. Method as the Truth-Function of Knowledge and the Problem of Verification	41
METHODOLOGY AND TYPES OF KNOWLEDGE	59
1. The Transcendental Character of Scientific Theory	59
2. The Natural Sciences	61
(a) The Hermeneutics of their Functional Method	61
(b) Logical Atomism and Dialectical Materialism — Two Opposite Approaches to the Natural Sciences	66
3. History	75
(a) The Meaning of History and its Interrelationship with the Natural Sciences	75
(b) From Historia to Geschichte	83
(i) The Definition of Historia in terms of Natural Events	83
(ii) Historia in terms of Religious Events	84
(iii) The Meaning of Geschichte	85
(iv) Vico, Comte, Hume and Geschichte as Progress	87
(v) Kant and Geschichte as Hypothesis	88
(vi) Hegel and Geschichte as the Cyclic Movement of the World Spirit	91
(vii) The Historical School — Man as an Individual and a Member of a Nation	93

(viii) Marx and Engels — Geschichte as the Changing of the World through Labour	94
(ix) Neo-Marxism — Geschichte as Critical Reflection	95
(x) Neo-Positivism — Geschichte has no Meaning	99
4. The Socio-Political Sciences	108
(a) The Beginnings	108
(b) Socio-Political Thought of the Enlightenment Era	112
(c) The Further Development of Socio-Political Thought in terms of Theory and Practice	118
5. Art — Its Philosophy and Theory	138
(a) The Aesthetic Experience	138
(b) Examples of the Philosophy and Theory of Art	145
(i) Plato's Kalokagathia	145
(ii) The Enlightenment	147
(iii) Romanticism	150
(iv) Existential Aspect of Aesthetics	155
(v) Contemporary Aesthetics	168

THE RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN SCIENCE (THEORY) AND MORALITY (PRACTICE)

1. The Possibility of their Reconciliation	188
2. The Dissonance of Science and Morality in our Time	190
3. The Common Root of Science and Morality	192
4. Emancipation from the Science Dogma	195

THE REALM OF FREEDOM

1. The Critical Nature of Theory as a Catalyst of Practice — Epistemological Aspect of Theory	201
2. The Contingent Nature of Human Existence — Ethical Aspect of Theory	207
3. The Self-Realization of Man from Freedom as the Authentic Ground of Utopia — Metaphysical Aspect of Theory	212

THE HERMENEUTICS OF THE PHILOSOPHY – THEOLOGY RELATIONSHIP	217
1. The Problem of Theological Truth	217
2. Philosophy and Theology — Differences and Similarities	225
(a) The Religious Phenomenon as Part of the Philosophical Argument	225
(b) The Critical Relationship of the Philosophical Argument as the Epistemological Limit of Human Truth	227
(c) The Epistemological Limit in Theological Argument and the Interrelationship of Philosophy and Theology	229
(d) Anthropological Aspects of the Philosophy-Theology Relationship.....	232
THE HERMENEUTICS OF THE TRUTH OF NOT-KNOWING THE TRUTH.....	235
ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS	262
BIBLIOGRAPHY	263