

Contents

Preface	9
Acknowledgments	13

I The Principle of Mediation

1 Mythos and Logos	17
2 The Mythological World Order of the Greeks	18
3 Mediation through Eros and Apollo	19
4 The World as a Whole in Myth and Science	22
5 Space in Myth and Science	23
6 Time and Causality	24

II The World of Logos: Heraclitus and Parmenides

Heraclitus

7 The Human and Divine Logos	27
------------------------------	----

Parmenides

8 Knowledge and Being: The Two Ways	31
9 Like Knows Like: Identification in Logos	33
10 The Science of Truth	34
11 Salvation through Logos: The Mystery of Being	34

III Plato's World of Noesis

12 The Greek Age of Enlightenment	37
13 The Way and the Method	38
a. Dialectic as Method	38
b. Dialectic as Process	39
c. Dialectic as Reality	41
14 Appearance and Reality	41
15 The Salvation of Man	46
16 The Mystery and the Myth	47

IV Aristotle's World of Metaphysics

17 The Scientist-Philosopher	49
18 The Causes of Reality	51
19 Causality as Logical Mediation	53

20	Substance as Logical Triad	56
21	Existence as Logical Necessity	58
22	The Copula as Four Causes in Three Kinds of Existence	59
23	Quasi-Existents: Space, Time, and Infinity	61
24	The Eternity of Motion	64
25	The Prime Mover	66
26	Logos and Mythos	69
27	Man and the Cosmos	71

V The Crisis of Mediation in the Hellenistic Age

28	Collapse of the Aristotelian Rational World	73
29	Stoics and Epicureans	76
	a. The Stoics	76
	b. The Epicureans	83
30	Skeptics, Gnostics, and the Early Church	86
	a. The Skeptics	86
	b. The Gnostics	88
	c. The Early Church	90

VI The Ratiocination of Faith

31	The Rational Ground of Dogma	94
32	Saint Augustine's Argument from the Image	96
33	Saint Anselm's Argument from the Essence	100
34	Saint Thomas Aquinas's Argument from Existence	104

VII The Ratiocination of Science

35	Revival of the Greek Scientific Spirit, Galileo: In the Language of Mathematics	114
36	Descartes: Mathesis Universalis	124
37	Leibniz's Harmony of Monads and Anaxagoras's Homoiomeres	135
38	Newton and Einstein: Theories of Hypothesis and of Principle	150

VIII The Crisis of Mediation in Modern Times

39	The Age of Enlightenment	172
40	Hume's Skepticism	175
41	Kant's Criticism	184

IX Culmination of the Principle of Mediation

42	Hegel's Dialectic	215
----	-------------------	-----

X Epilogue

Notes	253
Bibliography	307
Index	319
Index of Greek Terms	339