

Contents

|   |     |
|---|-----|
| General editor's note  | vii |
| Introduction   | ix  |
|   |     |
| Part I Liberality and the university   |     |
|   |     |
| 1 Ambiguities in liberal education and the problem of its content            | 3   |
| Professor R. S. PetersUniversity of London Institute of Education               |     |
| 2 Liberality, neutrality and the modern university                           | 22  |
| Professor Kenneth A. StrikeCornell University                                   |     |
| 3 Student academic freedom and the changing student/university relationships | 36  |
| Professor Romulo F. MagsinoMemorial University of Newfoundland                  |     |
|   |     |
| Part II Students' rights   |     |
|   |     |
| 4 From childhood to adulthood: assigning rights and responsibilities         | 61  |
| Professor Francis SchragUniversity of Wisconsin                                 |     |
| 5 Compulsory education: a moral critique                                     | 79  |
| Professor Leonard I. KrimermanUniversity of CaliforniaBerkeley              |     |

Part III Autonomy, freedom and schooling

- 6 Autonomy as an aim of education 105
Professor Brian Crittenden
La Trobe University
- 7 Ambiguity and constraint in the
'freedom' of free schools 127
Professor David Nyberg
State University of New York at Buffalo

Part IV Equality and pluralism

- 8 Cultural diversity and education 147
Professor Richard Pratte
Ohio State University
- 9 Equality of educational opportunity 168
Professor Robert H. Ennis
University of Illinois

Part V Technology and work

- 10 Technology and educational values 193
Professor H. S. Broudy
University of Illinois
- 11 Career education and the pathologies of work 211
Professor Thomas F. Green
Syracuse University
- Index 223