

CONTENTS

Preface	v
CHAPTER 1. INTRODUCTORY: META-ETHICS, NORMATIVE ETHICS AND MORALITY
1. Levels of Theorizing	1
2. Meta-Ethics	2
3. Normative Ethics and Morality	3
4. Inter-relations between Meta-Ethics and Normative Ethics	5
5. The plan of this work	7
PART A. META-ETHICS: A DEFENCE OF AN INTUITIONIST ETHIC
CHAPTER 2. THEISTIC AND NATURALISTIC META-ETHICAL THEORIES
1. Theistic Ethics: God as Creator of Morality	11
2. Thomistic Natural Law Ethics	17
3. Naturalistic Theories	23
The Naturalistic Fallacy	23
Approval Theories	29
(a) What is an attitude?	29
(b) What is it to approve?	31
(c) "Good" means "I approve"	33
(d) Relativism as a meta-ethic: 'Good' means 'Society approves'	38
(e) 'Good' means 'approved by the impartial observer'	41
CHAPTER 3. NON-COGNITIVIST META-ETHICAL THEORIES
1. 'Good' as expressing feelings and attitudes	45
2. 'Ought' as expressing and commanding	50
3. Stevenson: 'Good' means 'I approve; do so as well'	50
4. Hare's Ethical Subjectivist Prescriptivism	66
5. Nowell-Smith's Ethics	80

CHAPTER 4. A POSITIVE APPROACH: INTUITIONISM AND THE NATURE OF THE OBJECTIVE MORAL FACTS

1. The Factual Character of Moral Discourse	93
2. Moral Principles: Their Synthetic A Priori Character	96
3. Moral Perplexity: Deliberation and Reasoning	99
4. Moral Advice	101
5. Teaching and Learning Moral Concepts and Truths	104
6. Similarities and Differences Between 'Good', 'Right', 'Ought', and 'Duty'	109
7. The Accounts Suggested by These Logical Features of Moral Expressions	112
(a) 'Good' as the name of a property	112
(b) 'Right' as the name of a relation	122
(c) 'Ought' and Reasons for acting	126

CHAPTER 5. INTUITIONISM: HOW WE COME TO GAIN MORAL KNOWLEDGE

1. Intuitive Insight as Rational Apprehension of Necessary Truths: The Powers of Reason	136
2. Synthetic a priori propositions	138
3. Truth Tests and Intuitive Insights	142
4. Intuitionism and Tolerance	146
5. Multiple Intuitions	147
6. Summary of Conclusions	151
Note A. Meta-Theories of Rights	153
Note B. Concerning Revisionary Meta-Ethics	155

PART B. NORMATIVE ETHICS: THE CASE FOR ETHICAL PLURALISM

INTRODUCING PART B. FROM META-ETHICS TO NORMATIVE ETHICS

CHAPTER 6. INTRINSIC GOODS

1. Pleasure and Happiness	163
2. Knowledge	164
3. Rationality and Rational Belief	166
4. Beauty and Aesthetic Excellence	167
5. Moral Goodness	169
6. Self-perfection	171

CHAPTER 7: MONISTIC THEORIES OF ABSOLUTE OBLIGATION: UTILITARIANISM

1. Varieties of Utilitarianism	173
(a) Radical and Conservative Utilitarianism	173
(b) Hedonistic, Eudemonistic, and Ideal Utilitarianism	175
(c) Act and Rule Utilitarianism	176
2. Act Utilitarianism	176
3. Rule Utilitarianism	186

CHAPTER 8. PLURALISTIC THEORIES OF ABSOLUTE OBLIGATION: KANT AND NATURAL LAW
1. The Kantian Theory	199
(a) Formula 1	200
(b) Formula 2	207
2. Thomistic Natural Law Ethics	211
CHAPTER 9. A POSITIVE APPROACH: Prima Facie DUTIES	8
1. Presumptions in Favour of a Theory of Prima Facie Duties	220
2. The Nature of Prima Facie Duties	222
(a) Promotion of Good, Elimination of Evil	225
(b) Justice	231
(c) Respect for persons	234
(d) Honesty	239
3. Interconnexions between prima facie duties	241
4. The Prima Facie Character of Prima Facie Obligations	241
5. Prima Facie Ought and 'Can'	244
Bibliography	247