

CONTENTS

|                |   |
|----------------|---|
| Preface | 9 |
|----------------|---|

CHARLES SANDERS PEIRCE

|   |   |     |
|---|---|-----|
| 1 | INTRODUCTION                                | 12  |
| 2 | THE BASES OF PEIRCE'S PRAGMATISM            | 17  |
|   | A His Theory of Truth                       | 17  |
|   | B His Theory of Meaning                     | 40  |
|   | 1 What is Belief?                    | 40  |
|   | 2 Operations on Concepts             | 49  |
|   | 3 Concessions to Realism             | 62  |
| 3 | PEIRCE'S PHILOSOPHY OF SCIENCE              | 74  |
|   | A The Three Kinds of Reasoning              | 74  |
|   | B The Justification of Induction            | 91  |
|   | C The Factor of Chance                      | 103 |
| 4 | PEIRCE'S CATEGORIES AND HIS THEORY OF SIGNS | 112 |
|   | A The Three Categories                      | 112 |
|   | 1 Feeling and Perception             | 112 |
|   | 2 Facts and Laws                     | 121 |
|   | B The Interpretation of Signs               | 130 |
|   | C The Divisions of Signs                    | 147 |
|   | 1 Types and Tokens                   | 147 |
|   | 2 Icons, Indices and Symbols         | 149 |
|   | 3 Propositions and their Subjects    | 158 |
|   | D Appraisal of Peirce's Theory of Signs     | 166 |

WILLIAM JAMES

|   |  |     |
|---|--|-----|
| I | INTRODUCTION   | 183 |
| 2 | THE WILL TO BELIEVE AND THE PRAGMATICTHEORY OF TRUTH | 191 |
|   | A James's Emotional Commitments                          | 191 |
|   | B The Nature of Truth                                    | 196 |
|   | 1 Truth in Relation to Matters of Fact            | 202 |
|   | 2 A priori Truths                                 | 205 |
|   | 3 Moral and Aesthetic Judgements                  | 208 |
|   | C The Will and its Freedom                               | 212 |
|   | D The Place of Religious Belief                          | 219 |
| 3 | RADICAL EMPIRICISM                                       | 224 |
|   | A The Data of Experience                                 | 224 |
|   | 1 Sensation and Perception                        | 224 |
|   | 2 The Genesis of Space                            | 233 |
|   | 3 The Genesis of Time                             | 243 |
|   | 4 The Analysis of Memory                          | 252 |
|   | B The Knower and the Known                               | 256 |
|   | 1 The Concept of the Self                         | 256 |
|   | 2 A Theory of Personal Identity                   | 263 |
|   | 3 Percepts and Concepts                           | 288 |
|   | C The Construction of the Physical World                 | 298 |
|   | 1 Experiences in their Double Aspect              | 298 |
|   | 2 The Basis of the Construction                   | 303 |
|   | 3 The Question of Privacy                         | 311 |
|   | 4 The Construction Outlined                       | 321 |
|   | 5 On What There Is                                | 329 |
|   | Index   | 337 |