

Contents

Political Writings

Foreword 3

- I Notes on the Political Situation in Bolivia 6
- II Letter to the Federation of Press Workers of Bolivia 29
- III Some Answers to Questions about a Failed Uprising 40
- IV Correspondence with Chato Peredo 65
 - 1 Letter from Régis Debray to the ELN of Bolivia 65
 - 2 Reply from Chato Peredo 72
 - 3 Reply to Chato Peredo from Régis Debray 77
 - 4 Letter to Régis Debray from Chato Peredo and his Comrades 84

Theoretical Writings

- I Time and Politics 87
 - Mastery of the Present: the Touchstone of Historical Materialism 87
 - The Speculative Concept of Historical Time: the Mainstay of Reformism 92
 - The Trap of Reformism: Crisis Situations 97
 - The 'Why' of Historical Crises: Recalling the Dialectical Foundations 99
 - The 'How' of Crises: an Outline Description 102
 - The Example of 1871, and the Dispute between Marx and Kugelmann 116

	The Example of 1914 and the Left of Zimmerwald	117
	Crisis and Revolutionary Situation: a Necessary Distinction	122
	A Parenthesis on the Problem of Alliances	124
	'We have no treaty with victory, but only with the battle'	127
	The Two Abstractions, or Brothers who are Enemies	131
	Ideological Digression on Trotskyism	137
	The Twofold Role of Politico-Social Crises in Capitalist Society	141
	Crisis as Womb	147
	Some Irreverent Notes on the Hegelian Religion of History	154
II	Schema for a Study of Gramsci	161

Some Literary Reflections

	In Settlement of All Accounts	169
--	-------------------------------	-----