

CONTENTS

I	Multiple Personality	I
II	The Transcendental 'I'	15
III	Responsibility and Language	28
IV	The Grounds of Responsibility	46
V	Aesthetic Judgements—A Logical Study	60
VI	Sidgwick's Pessimism	77
VII	The Disutility of Act-Utilitarianism	91
VIII	Can There Be a Right-Based Moral Theory?	105
IX	The Law of the Jungle: Moral Alternatives and Principles of Evolution	120
X	The Third Theory of Law	132
XI	Bootstraps Enterprises	145
XII	Co-operation, Competition, and Moral Philosophy	152
XIII	The Three Stages of Universalization	170
XIV	Rights, Utility, and Universalization	184
XV	Morality and the Retributive Emotions	206
XVI	Rights, Utility, and External Costs	220
XVII	Norms and Dilemmas	234
XVIII	Parfit's Population Paradox	242
XIX	The Combination of Partially-Ordered Preferences	249
	Index of Names	254