

CONTENTS

CHAPTER		PAGE
A. FROM HOBBS TO HEGEL
I	The Use of Authorities	9
II	Hobbes	11
III	Locke	20
IV	Rousseau	26
V	Hegel and the Hegelians	33
B. THE LIMITS OF STATE ACTION
VI	The Theories limiting State Action	55
VII	Natural Rights and the Liberty of the Individual	57
VIII	The Immorality of Compulsion	64
IX	Non-Political Values in Moral Action	71
C. THE PLACE OF THE STATE
X	The State as a Centre of Sympathy and Co-operation	95
XI	The Ends for which Political Organization is Necessary or Desirable	100
XII	The State and Other Associations	112
XIII	The State and Other States	139
D. THE UNITY OF THE STATE
XIV	The General Will and the Corporate Self	148
XV	The Basis of State Unity	162
Appendix:
	Political Philosophy and the Social Sciences	171
	Index	179