

Contents

Acknowledgements	xxvi
Preface to the Second Edition	xxviii
About This Book	1
Basic themes	1
The organization of the book	3
Chapter summaries and glossary	4
Further research: reading and libraries	4
For students: how to use this book	4
Part I Introduction to Sociology	5
1 Sociology: Problems and Perspectives	7
What is sociology about? Some examples	8
Love and marriage	8
Health and illness	9
Crime and punishment	9
Implications: the nature of sociology	11
Change in the modern world	11
Sociology and 'common sense'	12
Sociological questions	14
Factual questions	14
Comparative questions	15
Developmental questions	15
Theoretical questions	15
Intended and unintended consequences of human action	16
What can sociology show us about our own actions?	17
Structure and action	18
Developing a sociological outlook	18
Is sociology a science?	20
Objectivity	21
The practical significance of sociology	22
Understanding social situations	22

vi Contents

Awareness of cultural differences
Assessment of the effects of policies
The increase of self-knowledge
The sociologist's role in society
Concluding comments
Summary
Basic concepts
Important terms

Part II Culture, the Individual and Social Interaction

2 Culture and Society

The meeting of cultures
Early contacts with other cultures
The concept of culture
The human species
Evolution
Human beings and the apes
Nature and nurture
Sociobiology
Instincts
Cultural diversity
Cultural identity and ethnocentrism
Cultural universals
Language
Speech and writing
Semiotics and material culture
Types of premodern society
Hunters and gatherers
The Mbuti pygmies
The original 'affluent societies'?
Pastoral and agrarian societies
Pastoral societies
Agrarian societies
Non-industrial civilizations or traditional states
The Maya
Features of the traditional state
Societies in the modern world
The industrialized societies
Third World societies
Conclusion
Summary
Basic concepts

Important terms	58
Further reading	58
3 Socialization and the Life-Cycle	59
'Unsocialized' children	60
The 'wild boy of Aveyron'	60
Genie	61
The early development of the infant	63
Perceptual development	63
Crying and smiling	63
Infants and caretakers	64
The development of social responses	66
Attachment and loss	67
Isolated monkeys	67
Deprivation in human infants	68
Long-term influences	68
The socialization of the infant	68
Theories of child development	69
Freud and psychoanalysis	69
Personality development	70
Criticisms	71
The theory of G. H. Mead	71
Piaget: cognitive development	72
The stages of cognitive development	73
Criticisms	74
Connections between the theories	75
Agencies of socialization	76
The family	76
Peer relationships	77
Schools	78
The mass media	79
Other socializing agencies	79
Resocialization	80
Behaviour in the concentration camp	80
'Brainwashing'	81
The life course	82
Childhood	82
Adolescence	83
The young adult	84
Mature adulthood	84
Old age	85
Death and the succession of the generations	85
Socialization and individual freedom	86
Summary	87
Basic concepts	88

viii Contents

Important terms
Further reading

4 Social Interaction and Everyday Life

The study of day-to-day social life
Non-verbal communication
 The face and emotion
 'Face' and culture
Social rules, conversations and talk
 Shared understandings
 Garfinkel's experiments
Forms of talk
Lapses of body and tongue
 Response cries
 Slips of the tongue
Face, body and speech in interaction
Encounters
Contexts and locations
 Impression management
 Front and back regions
 Adopting roles: intimate examinations
Encounters and personal space
Interaction in time and space
 Clock time
 Time geography
 Time-space constraints
 Zoning
Everyday life in cultural and historical perspective
Microsociology and macrosociology
Summary
Basic concepts
Important terms
Further reading

5 Conformity and Deviance

What is deviance?
Norms and sanctions
Laws, crimes and punishment
 Crimes in preindustrial times
 Changes in modes of punishment
 Prisons and asylums
Explaining deviance
 Biological and psychological theories of crime and deviance
 The argument from biology
 Crime and psychopathic personality: the psychological view

Society and crime: sociological theories	125
Differential association	125
Anomie as a cause of crime	126
Anomie and association: delinquent subcultures	127
Evaluation	127
Labelling theory	128
Rational choice and 'situational' interpretations of crime	131
Theoretical conclusions	132
Crime and criminal statistics	133
New Left Realism	135
Homicide and other violent crime	136
Homicide	136
Violent crime in the USA	137
Prisons and punishment	138
Prison protest and alternatives to imprisonment	139
The death penalty	140
Gender and crime	141
Male and female crime rates	141
The girls in the gang	142
Prison violence among women	144
Evaluation	144
Crimes against women	145
Crimes of the affluent and powerful	145
White-collar crime	145
Governmental crime	147
Organized crime	148
Victimless crime	151
The concept of mental illness	152
Psychosis and neurosis	152
Physical treatments	153
The diagnosis of mental illness	153
Incarceration and decarceration	154
The nature of madness: residual rule-breaking	154
Decarceration	155
Deviance and social order	157
Summary	157
Basic concepts	159
Important terms	159
Further reading	159
6 Gender and Sexuality	160
Sex, gender and biology	161
The origins of sex differences	162
Are behaviour differences biologically based?	163
The evidence from animals	163
The evidence from humans	164

x Contents

Gender socialization	165
Reactions of parents and adults	165
Gender learning	166
Books and stories	167
Television	168
School and peer-group influences	168
The difficulty of non-sexist childrearing	168
Gender identity and sexuality: three theories	169
Freud's theory of gender development	169
Assessment	170
Chodorow's theory of gender development	170
Evaluation	171
Gender, self and morality: the theory of Carol Gilligan	172
Assessment	172
Patriarchy and production	173
The dominance of men	173
Women and the workplace: the historical view	174
Inequalities at work	175
The problems of success	177
Equal opportunities legislation	179
Low pay and the female poverty trap	179
The case of Sweden	180
Housework	181
Feminist movements	182
Early feminism in France	182
The struggle in the United States	183
European developments	183
The resurgence of feminism	185
The impact of feminism	185
Domestic violence, sexual harassment and rape	187
Domestic violence	187
Sexual harassment	187
Rape	188
Rape and female anxiety: Brownmiller's thesis	190
'Normal' sexual behaviour	191
Cross-cultural differences	191
Sexuality in Western culture	192
Sexual behaviour	193
Male sexuality and the issue of 'men's liberation'	195
Homosexuality	196
Homosexuality in non-Western cultures	196
Homosexuality in Western culture	197
The extent of homosexuality	197
Attitudes towards homosexuality	198
Gay subcultures	198
Lesbianism	198

AIDS	199
AIDS and the heterosexual population	200
Prostitution	202
Prostitution today	202
Child prostitution	203
Conclusion: sociology and gender relations	205
Summary	205
Basic concepts	206
Important terms	207
Further reading	207
Part III Structures of Power	209
7 Stratification and Class Structure	211
Systems of social stratification	212
Slavery	212
Caste	213
Estates	214
Class	214
Theories of stratification in modern societies	216
Karl Marx's theory	216
The nature of class	216
The complexity of class systems	217
The theory of Max Weber	218
Status	219
Party	219
Erik Olin Wright's theory of class	220
Frank Parkin: a Weberian approach	220
Classes in Western societies today	221
Differences of wealth and income	222
Wealth	222
Income	223
The upper class	224
The middle class	225
The working class	226
Studying class consciousness: different approaches	227
The reputational method	227
The subjective method	227
Images of the class structure	228
Gender and stratification	229
Class divisions and gender	230
The debate continues	232
The changing class system	232

xii Contents

Trends in the occupational order	232
Decomposition of the upper class?	234
Professionals, managers, administrators	235
White collar, blue collar: feminization and proletarianization	236
Changes affecting the working class	237
Social mobility	239
Comparative mobility studies	239
Downward mobility	241
Social mobility in Britain	241
Levels of mobility	242
Problems in studying social mobility	243
Your own mobility chances	244
Poverty and inequality	245
What is poverty?	245
Poverty today	246
Why are the poor still poor?	247
Summary	248
Basic concepts	249
Important terms	250
Further reading	250
8 Ethnicity and Race	251
Ethnic groups, minorities and race in plural societies	252
Minorities	253
Race and biology	254
Ethnic antagonism, prejudice and discrimination	255
Stereotypes and scapegoats	256
The authoritarian personality	257
Ethnicity and childhood	258
The attitudes of majority groups	259
Sociological interpretations	259
General factors	260
A historical perspective	261
Ethnic relations in historical perspective: some examples	264
Ethnic relations in Brazil	265
The social development of South Africa	266
Black civil rights in the USA	268
The abolition of slavery and early developments	268
The civil rights movement	270
Integration and antagonism	271
The history of immigration in the United Kingdom	273
Early arrivals	273
Later developments	274
Race, racism and inequality	276
Ethnicity and the underclass	277

The policing of minority groups	278
Ethnic relations on the Continent	279
Likely future developments in ethnic relations	280
Summary	281
Basic concepts	282
Important terms	283
Further reading	283
9 Groups and Organizations	284
Forms of association	285
Primary and secondary groups	285
Formal organizations	286
Bureaucracy	287
Weber's view of bureaucracy	288
The effectiveness of bureaucracy	288
Formal and informal relations within bureaucracies	289
Bureaucracy and oligarchy	290
Japanese corporations	292
The implications of the Japanese system for organization theory	294
Influences on organizations in the modern world	296
Professionals	296
Information technology	297
The physical settings of organizations	298
Surveillance and discipline in organizations	299
Surveillance	299
Discipline	301
Carceral organizations	301
The development of carceral organizations	302
Non-bureaucratic organizations: self-help groups	303
Features of self-help groups	304
Concluding comment	305
Summary	305
Basic concepts	306
Important terms	306
Further reading	306
10 Politics, Government and the State	308
Characteristics of states	309
The political apparatus	309
Territory	310
Law and the use of force	310
Modern states	311
Definitions	311
Citizenship rights	312
Political parties and voting in Western countries	313
Party systems	314

xiv Contents

Voting and class	315
Parties and voting in Britain	316
Voting behaviour – partisan dealignment	317
Current status of the debate	319
The election of 1992	319
Thatcherism and after	321
Party politics: breaking the mould in the late twentieth century?	322
The theories of state overload and legitimation crisis	323
Assessment of the theories	324
The political participation of women	324
Voting patterns and political attitudes	324
Women in political organizations	326
Non-institutionalized political action	328
Democracy	330
Types of democracy	331
Representative multiparty systems	331
Representative one-party systems	331
Participatory democracy	332
The universal appeal of democracy and the decline of monarchies	332
Democratic elitism and pluralist theories	333
Democratic elitism	333
Max Weber's view	333
Joseph Schumpeter's ideas	334
Pluralist theories	335
Criticisms and evaluation of the theories	335
Who rules?	336
The 'inner circle' in the USA	338
Elites in Britain	339
Assessment	340
Politics in the international domain	341
Nationalism and the modern state	341
The European Community and the changed map of Europe	343
The development of the Community	343
The new map of Europe	346
Summary	348
Basic concepts	349
Important terms	350
Further reading	350
11 War and the Military	351
Warfare in the past	352
Ancient societies	352
Warfare in Europe and its colonies	353
The industrialization of war	354

Total war	355
War and aggression	356
Patterns of military organization	358
Characteristics of the modern military	359
The military in Britain	361
Before the Second World War	361
After the Second World War	363
Women and war	364
Women's campaigns against war	367
The military, politics and society	368
Military rule and influence	368
The military-industrial complex	370
Armed force in the Third World	371
Types of military rule	371
Terrorism and guerrilla movements	372
Terrorism	373
Guerrilla movements	375
Patterns of guerrilla activity	377
Global military expenditure and weapons	378
The arms trade	378
Arms races	379
'Star Wars' and after	381
Current developments: the issue of proliferation	382
A world without war?	383
Summary	384
Basic concepts	385
Important terms	385
Further reading	386
Part IV Social Institutions	387
12 Kinship, Marriage and the Family	389
Kinship	390
Clan groups	390
Family relationships	391
Monogamy and polygamy	392
Polyandry	392
Polygyny	393
The family and marriage in European history	393
The development of family life	395
Origins of the changes	396
Changes in family patterns worldwide	397

Directions of change	397
Family and marriage in the United Kingdom	399
Overall characteristics	399
Trends of development	400
New forms of variation in family patterns	400
South Asian families	401
Influences on the family and marriage today	402
Divorce and separation in the West	403
The growth in divorce	403
The experience of divorce	405
Uncoupling	405
Transitions in divorce	407
Divorce and children	408
Lone-parent households	409
Remarriage and step-parenting	410
Remarriage	410
Step-families	411
The dark side of the family	413
Sexual abuse	414
Explanations	416
Violence within the family	416
Alternatives to marriage and the family	418
Communes	418
Cohabitation	419
Gay-parent families	420
Staying single	420
The decline of the family?	420
Summary	421
Basic concepts	422
Important terms	422
Further reading	422
13 Education, Communication and Media	424
The early development of literacy and schooling	426
The development of schooling in the United Kingdom	427
Origins of the modern system	427
The public schools	428
Comparisons of school systems in the industrialized world	429
Higher education	430
International comparisons	430
The system in Britain	430
Education and inequality	432
Coleman's study of inequalities in education in the USA	432
Later research	433
Theories of schooling	434
Bernstein: language codes	434
Bowles and Gintis: schools and industrial capitalism	436

Illich: the hidden curriculum	437
Education and cultural reproduction	438
Willis: an analysis of cultural reproduction	439
Intelligence and inequality	441
What is intelligence?	441
IQ and genetic factors: the Jensen controversy	441
Disentangling genetics and IQ: identical twins	442
Gender and the education system	443
Education and literacy in the Third World	444
Communication and media	446
Mass communications	446
The development of newspapers	447
Newspaper publishing	448
The impact of television	449
Television companies	449
The effect of television on behaviour	450
Television as purveyor of social attitudes	452
Conclusion	452
Summary	453
Basic concepts	454
Important terms	454
Further reading	454
14 Religion	455
Defining religion (and magic)	457
What religion is not	457
What religion is	458
Varieties of religion	459
Totemism and animism	459
Judaism, Christianity and Islam	460
Judaism	460
Christianity	460
Islam	461
The religions of the Far East	461
Hinduism	461
Buddhism, Confucianism, Taoism	462
Theories of religion	463
Marx and religion	463
Durkheim and religious ritual	465
Durkheim's expectations of religious change	466
Weber and the world religions	466
Assessment	468
Types of religious organization	469
Weber and Troeltsch: churches and sects	469
Becker: denominations and cults	469
Evaluation	470

Gender and religion	471
Religious images	471
Women in religious organizations	472
Millenarian movements	474
The followers of Joachim	475
The Ghost Dance	476
The nature of millenarian movements	476
Current developments in religion: the Islamic revolution	477
The development of the Islamic faith	477
Islam and the West	479
Religion in the United Kingdom	480
Religion in the United States	482
Diversity	482
Christian fundamentalism	483
The problem of secularization	485
Concluding assessment	487
Summary	487
Basic concepts	488
Important terms	488
Further reading	489
15 Work and Economic Life	490
The division of labour	491
Primary, secondary and tertiary sectors	492
Industrial division of labour: Taylorism and Fordism	493
Work on the assembly line	494
The limitations of Fordism and Taylorism	495
Fordism and after	496
Post-Fordism and flexible production	496
Automation	496
Low-trust systems, high-trust systems and group production	498
Industrial democracy	499
Corporations and corporate power	501
Types of corporate capitalism	502
Trade unions and industrial conflict	504
The development of unions	504
Why do unions exist?	505
Recent developments	506
Strikes	508
Strike statistics	509
Recent trends in industrial conflict	509
Unemployment, women's work and the informal economy	510
Unemployment	510
Analysing unemployment	511
Being in and out of work	513
Why have rates of unemployment risen?	515
Women and work	516

Housework	516
Women's work outside the home	517
The informal economy	518
The future of work	519
Summary	521
Basic concepts	523
Important terms	523
Further reading	523
Part V Social Change in the Modern World	525
16 The Globalizing of Social Life	527
Third World societies	528
The formation of nations	528
The economic consequences of colonialism	529
Poverty	531
The newly industrializing countries	531
The divergence between rich and poor countries	532
Connections between the First and Third Worlds	534
Food production and world hunger	535
Famine	535
Agribusiness	537
Food production and environmental ecology	538
Theoretical perspectives	539
Imperialism	539
Neo-imperialism	540
Dependency theory	540
World system theory	541
Critical assessment of the theories	542
The transnational corporations	543
Types of transnational corporation	543
The growth of the transnationals	545
International economic integration	546
An example: the motor-car industry	546
Current developments	548
Non-state actors	549
The United Nations	549
Other international organizations	550
Trading networks	551
Threats to the global environment	551
Sources of threat	554
The environment: a sociological issue?	556
The globalizing of media	556

xx Contents

News	557
Cinema, television, advertising and electronic communication	557
Cinema	557
Television	558
Advertising	558
Electronic communication	558
Media imperialism	559
Conclusion	560
Summary	561
Basic concepts	562
Important terms	563
Further reading	563
17 Modern Urbanism	564
The traditional city	564
Features of modern urbanism	566
The development of modern cities: consciousness and culture	567
Interpretations of city life	567
Theories of urbanism	568
The Chicago School	568
Urban ecology	569
Urbanism as a way of life	571
Urbanism and the created environment	573
Harvey: the restructuring of space	573
Castells: urbanism and social movements	574
Evaluation	575
Postwar patterns of Western urban development	577
Urbanism in the United States	577
Suburbanization	577
Inner-city decay	577
Financial crises	579
Urbanism in Britain	580
Suburbanization and inner-city decay	580
Financial crises in British cities	581
Public into private housing	582
Gentrification or 'urban recycling'	583
Urbanism and international influences	584
The global city	585
Third World urbanization	587
Delhi	587
Mexico City	588
Likely future developments	589
Summary	590
Basic concepts	591
Important terms	591
Further reading	591

18	Population, Health and Ageing	592
	World population growth	593
	Population analysis: demography	594
	Basic demographic concepts	595
	The dynamics of population change	597
	Malthusianism	597
	Population growth in the Third World	598
	The demographic transition	599
	Likely prospects for the Third World	600
	Population in the United Kingdom	601
	Health and illness	602
	Treatment of illness in the past	602
	The development of modern medicine	603
	The Third World	604
	Colonialism and the spread of disease	604
	The infectious diseases today	605
	Health and illness in the developed countries	606
	The distribution and main types of disease	606
	Health care in the United Kingdom	607
	Health care in the United States	609
	Health and the global environment	611
	Age and ageing in the West	612
	Demographic trends	612
	What is 'old age'?	613
	Retirement	613
	The physical effects of ageing	614
	The future	615
	Summary	616
	Basic concepts	617
	Important terms	617
	Further reading	617
19	Revolutions and Social Movements	618
	Defining revolution	620
	Revolutions in the twentieth century	621
	The Russian revolution	621
	Revolution in China	623
	Theories of revolution	624
	Marx's theory	625
	Chalmers Johnson: revolution as 'disequilibrium'	626
	Evaluation	627
	James Davies: why do revolutions occur?	628
	Assessment	629
	Charles Tilly's theory of protest	629
	Assessment	631
	The consequences of revolution	632

xxii Contents

Short-term consequences
A comparison between China and India
1989: the revolutions in Eastern Europe
Movements and transitions
Origins and nature of the changes
Riots, crowds and other forms of collective action
Le Bon's theory of crowd action
Rational aspects of crowd action
Social movements
Definition
Classifying social movements
Theories of social movements
Neil Smelser: six conditions for social movements
Assessment
Alain Touraine: historicity
Evaluation
Social movements and sociology
Summary
Basic concepts
Important terms
Further reading

20 Social Change – Past, Present and Future

Defining change
Theories of social change
Evolutionary theories
Social Darwinism
Unilinear and multilinear evolution
Parsons's theory of evolution
Assessment
Historical materialism
Criticisms
The limitations of theories: Weber's interpretation of cl
Influences on change
The physical environment
Political organization
Cultural factors
Analysing episodes of change
Change in the recent past
Economic influences
Political influences
Cultural influences
Current change and future prospects
Towards a postindustrial society?
Critical evaluation
Postmodernity and the 'end of history'

Capitalism, socialism and democracy	666
Social change: looking into the future	669
Summary	669
Basic concepts	670
Important terms	670
Further reading	670
Part VI Methods and Theories in Sociology	673
21 Working with Sociology: Methods of Research	675
Research strategy	676
The research problem	676
Reviewing the evidence	677
Making the research problem precise	677
Working out a research design	677
Carrying out the research	678
Interpreting the results	679
Reporting research findings	679
The overall process	679
General methodology	679
Causation and correlation	680
Causal mechanisms	682
Controls	682
Identifying causes	683
Research methods	684
Fieldwork	684
The demands of fieldwork	685
The advantages and limitations of fieldwork	686
Surveys	687
Standardized and open-ended questionnaires	687
Sampling	688
Example: 'The People's Choice?'	689
Assessment	690
Documentary research	691
Pitfalls in documentary research	694
Experiments	694
Other methods	696
Interviews	696
Life histories	696
Diaries	697
Conversation analysis	697
Triangulation	698
An example: Wallis and Scientology	698

Ethical problems of research: the respondents answer
Problems in publication: Wallis's experience
The influence of sociology
Summary
Basic concepts
Important terms
Further reading

22 The Development of Sociological Theory

Early origins
Auguste Comte
Emile Durkheim
Karl Marx
Max Weber
Later developments
Present-day approaches
Functionalism
Merton's version of functionalism
Recent developments
Structuralism
Language and meaning
Structuralism and semiotics
Symbolic interactionism
Symbols
Marxism
Theoretical dilemmas
Structure and action
Assessment
Consensus and conflict
Assessment
The shaping of the modern world
The Marxist perspective
Weber's view
Evaluation
The problem of gender
Evaluation
Theories
An example: the Protestant ethic
Theoretical thinking in sociology
Summary
Basic concepts
Important terms
Further reading

Part VII Appendix and Glossaries	733
Appendix: How to Use Libraries	735
Sources of general information in sociology	736
Sociological journals	736
Research for dissertations or longer periods	737
Looking further	737
Glossary of Basic Concepts	739
Glossary of Important Terms	748
Bibliography	767
Index	797