

Contents In Brief

PART 1 Law and the Individual 1

- Issue 1. Is Abortion Protected by the Constitution? 2
- Issue 2. Are Restrictions on Physician-Assisted Suicide Constitutional? 24
- Issue 3. Do People Have a Legal Right to Clone Themselves? 48
- Issue 4. Should Lawyers Be Prohibited from Presenting a False Case? 60
- Issue 5. Should the Insanity Defense Be Abolished? 92
- Issue 6. Are Pretextual Stops by the Police Constitutional? 112

PART 2 Law and the State 129

- Issue 7. Is Flag Burning Protected by the First Amendment? 130
- Issue 8. Does Suspicionless Drug Testing of High School Students Violate the Fourth Amendment? 148
- Issue 9. Is It Constitutional for Public Libraries to Restrict Access to Some Sites on the Internet? 160
- Issue 10. Should the Death Penalty Be Abolished? 182
- Issue 11. Is It Constitutionally Permissible to Detain "Sexually Dangerous" Individuals After They Have Served Their Prison Sentences? 200
- Issue 12. Should Drug Use Be Legalized? 214

PART 3 Law and the Community 239

- Issue 13. Should Law Enforcement Officials Notify the Community When a Convicted Sex Offender Moves In? 240
- Issue 14. Is "Hate Speech" Fully Protected by the Constitution? 258
- Issue 15. Should Same-Sex Marriages Be Lawful? 278
- Issue 16. Are Public School Officials Liable for Damages in Cases of Student-on-Student Sexual Harassment? 294
- Issue 17. Should Children With Disabilities Be Provided With Extraordinary Care in Order to Attend Regular Classes in Public Schools? 310
- Issue 18. Do Affirmative Action Programs in Public School Admissions Policies Violate the Fourteenth Amendment? 322