

CONTENTS

Preface	page vii
I. Introduction	i
PART ONE: FROM BIBLICAL LEGENDS TO CONTEMPORARY SOCIOLOGY
II. Dichotomic Conceptions of Class-Structure – One Group Set Over Another	19
III. The Scheme of Gradation	38
IV. Functional Conceptions	58
V. The Marxian Synthesis	69
VI. The Class-Hierarchy and the Social-Status Continuum	89
VII. Non-Egalitarian Classlessness – Similarities in Inter- preting Mutually Opposed Systems	100
PART TWO: CONCEPTUAL CONSTRUCTS AND SOCIAL REALITY
VIII. The Three-fold Denotation of the Term 'Social Class'	121
IX. The Concept of Social Class: A Common Model and Discrepant Definitions	132
X. Types of Interpretation of the Social Structure – An Attempt at Classification	145
XI. Semantic Conventions Considered as Social Facts	156
XII. Interpretations of Class Structure in Historical Perspec- tive	172
Index	195