

Contents

Acknowledgements	13
Preface	15

PART ONE: PROBLEMS AND METHODS

Chapter 1	The Problems	19
Chapter 2	The Scope and Limits of Moral Argument	22
	Preliminaries	22
	Moral Disagreements	23
	The Interplay Between Responses and General Beliefs	26
	Why Have General Moral Beliefs?	29
	Degrees of Guidance	31
	Is It Futile to Propose Moral Beliefs?	31
	Imaginary Cases	33
	The Possibility of Disagreement	35

PART TWO: MORAL THEORY

Chapter 3	The Sanctity of Life	39
	Direct Objections and Side-effects	40
	Stating the Principle of the Sanctity of Life	41
	The Boundary Between Life and Death	43
	'Being Alive Is Intrinsically Valuable'	45
	'Being Conscious Is Intrinsically Valuable'	46
	'Being Human Is Intrinsically Valuable'	50
	The Concept of a 'Life Worth Living'	51
	Is the Desire to Live the Criterion of a Worth-While Life?	53
	Length of Life	54
	The 'No Trade-Off' View	57
	The Social Effects of Abandoning the Sanctity of Life	58

CONTENTS

Chapter 4 Actual and Potential People 60

1. Utilitarianism 62
2. The 'Person-Affecting' Restriction 66
3. Extra Happy People 69
4. An Evaluation of the Utilitarian View of Killing 71

Chapter 5 Autonomy and Rights 74

1. Paternalism 75
2. When Do Questions of Autonomy Arise? 76
3. Respect for Autonomy as an Objection to Killing Independent of Mental-State Utilitarianism 78
4. The Preference for Autonomy 80
5. Trade-Off 82
6. Is There a Right to Life? 83

Chapter 6 Ends and Means: Double Effect 86

Chapter 7 Not Striving to Keep Alive 92

1. The Sources of Strength of the Acts and Omissions Doctrine 94
2. Varieties of Omission 95
3. Acts, Omissions and Negative Utilitarianism 96
4. Probability of Outcome 98
5. Side-Effects 99
6. Who is Wronged? 100
7. Not Playing God 102
8. The View of Father Zossima's Brother, and the Impossibility of Doing All Good Things 104
9. Laws and Conventional Moral Rules 107
10. Agents and Moral Critics 109
11. The Effects of Blame for Omissions 110

Chapter 8 Some Conclusions 113

1. The Direct Wrongness of Killing 113
2. Side-Effects and the Wrongness of Killing 114

- . The Possibility of Beneficial Side-Effects 115
- . Saving Lives 116

- PART THREE: PRACTICE

- Chapter 9 Abortion: The Traditional Approach 119
 - . The Claim That the Foetus is a Human Being 121
 - . The Foetus as a Potential Person 122
 - . When Does One Become a Person? 123
 - . The Inadequacy of Sharp Boundaries 126

- Chapter 10 Abortion: Women's Rights Arguments 129
 - . The Appeal to Self-Defence 130
 - . The Ownership Argument 131
 - . The Priority Argument 132
 - . Abortion and Extraction 135

- Chapter 11 Abortion Reconsidered 137
 - . Abandoning the Sanctity of Life 138
 - . How Wrong is Deliberate Non-Conception? 140
 - . Side-Effects of Abortion 142
 - . The Morality of Freely Available Abortion 144
 - . When It Is Wrong Not to Have an Abortion 145
 - . Handicap and Worth-While Life 147
 - . A Consequence of Some 'Sanctity of Life' Views 149

- Chapter 12 Infanticide 150
 - . The Problem 150
 - . Some Traditional Answers 154
 - . Autonomy 156
 - . Worth-While Life 158
 - . The Relative Weakness of the Direct Objections to Infanticide 162
 - . Side-Effects: Those Closely Affected 163
 - . Side-Effects and Society: The Wedge Problem 164
 - . Towards a Social Policy 168

CONTENTS

- Chapter 13 Suicide and Gambling with Life 170
- 1. The Variety of Suicidal and Near-Suicidal Acts 172*
 - 2. Questions for the Person Thinking of Suicide 173*
 - 3. Intervention: The Problems 175*
 - 4. Intervention: A Policy 176*
 - 5. Paternalism and Gambling with Life 179*
- Chapter 14 Voluntary Euthanasia 182
- 1. Problems of the Euthanasia Request 185*
 - 2. Side-Effects 186*
 - 3. Suggestion 188*
- Chapter 15 Euthanasia without Request 190
- 1. Repudiation of Involuntary Euthanasia 191*
 - 2. Non-Voluntary Euthanasia 192*
 - 3. Lives Not Worth Living 192*
 - 4. The Alternatives 194*
 - 5. Ordinary and Extraordinary Means 195*
 - 6. Not Prolonging Dying 197*
 - 7. An Assessment of the Alternatives 198*
 - 8. Side-Effects: Franz Stangl 201*
- Chapter 16 Numbers 203
- 1. Choices in Ignorance 205*
 - 2. The Maximizing Policy 206*
 - 3. Certain Death for a Known Person and 'Statistical' Death 210*
 - 4. Medical Experiments 213*
- Chapter 17 Choices Between People 217
- 1. Interventionism 218*
 - 2. Lives or Life-Years: The Relevance of Age 220*
 - 3. Side-Effects 222*
 - 4. Quality of Life 223*
 - 5. Moral Status 224*
 - 6. Theory and Practice 226*

Chapter 18 Execution and Assassination	228
1. The Absolutist Rejection of Capital Punishment	231
2. A Utilitarian Approach	233
3. Deterrence and Murder	236
4. Deterrence and Political Crimes by Opposition Groups	240
5. Deterrence and Political Crimes by the Authorities	243
6. Assassination and Terrorism	246
7. Gambling with the Lives of Others	249
Chapter 19 War	251
1. The Views of Patriots and Other Believers	253
2. Absolute Pacifism	255
3. Contingent Pacifism	258
4. Government Decisions for and against Nuclear War	261
5. Nuclear Threats and Deterrence	264
6. Government Decisions for and against Conventional War: Aggression and Defence	268
7. Individual Decisions about Participation in War	270
8. War Crimes and the Rules of War	273
9. Revolution and Wars of National Liberation	279
10. Concluding Note	284
Chapter 20 Moral Distance	286
1. Moral Distance	287
2. Defence Mechanisms	290
3. Rationalist Man	292
4. Difficulty and Intuitive Basis	293
5. Moral Conservatism	295
Bibliography	299
Index	325