

Contents

Translator's Introduction	9
Introduction	21
[The Idea of God]	21
[What Is Theology?]	23
[Some Theological Terms]	29
The Ontological Proof	33
The Cosmological Proof	35
The Physicotheological Proof	36
Moral Theism	40
First Part: Transcendental Theology	43
First Section: Ontotheology	44
[The ens realissimum ]	44
[The Possibility of an entis realissimi ]	54
[The A Priori Proofs]	58
[Necessary Existence]	62
[God's Ontological Attributes]	69
[The Value of Transcendental Theology]	79
Second Section: Cosmotheology	81
[God's Knowledge]	82
[God's Will]	94
Third Section: Physicotheology	99
[The Physicotheological Proof]	99
[The Divine Will]	102

Second Part: Moral Theology	109
First Section: The Moral Attributes of God	109
[Moral Faith in God]	109
[God's Three Moral Attributes]	111
[The Problem of Evil]	115
Second Section: The Nature and Certainty of Moral Faith	121
[The absurdum practicum ]	122
[God's Justice]	123
[God's Blessedness]	129
Third Section: The Causality of God	131
I. God as Cause of the World	131
II. God as Author of the World	133
[Creation]	133
The Purpose of Creation	139
Providence	145
III. God as Ruler of the World	156
Fourth Section: Revelation	160
Appendix: A History of Natural Theology, according to Meiners' Historia doctrinae de uno vero Deo	165
Index	171