

CONTENTS

Chapter I: Of Linguistic Philosophy

Section 1	Introductory	17
2	First Approaches	19
3	A Theory of Philosophy	20
4	A Theory of the World and of Language	21
5	A Theory of Mind	23

Chapter II: Of Language

Section 1	The Theory of Language Expanded	27
2	Language Games	28
3	The Four Pillars	29
4	The Argument from Paradigm Cases	30
5	From Fact to Norm	37
6	The Contrast Theory of Meaning	40
7	General Comments on the Three Fallacies	43
8	The Cult of the Fox	44
9	Everything is Unlike Everything Else	50
10	The Best of all Possible Languages	53

Chapter III: Of Philosophy

Section 1	Activity not Doctrine	56
2	The Imperturbable Universe	59
3	Flashback	65
4	Logical Atomism	69
5	Logical Positivism	77
6	Logical Constructions	87
7	Common Sense	88
8	Transition	94
9	Appearance and Reality, or Monsieur Jourdain's Revolt	96

Chapter IV: Of the World

Section 1	The Secret of the Universe	99
2	Naturalism	103
3	A Special Kind of Naturalism	106
4	The Bait and the Trap	111
5	The Turn of the Screw	113
6	Triple Star	114
7	De Luxe	119

Chapter V: Of Knowledge

Section 1	The Circle of Knowledge	120
2	Multiplication beyond Necessity	125
3	Some Contrasts	127
4	Realism and Idealism	129
5	What One Looks Like when not Looking	130
6	"Seeing the World Rightly"	133
7	The Sages of Lagado	136
8	Not to Ask the Reason Why	139
9	The Proselytising Solipsist	143
10	The Elusive but Comforting Doctrine	144
11	The Delphic Insight	147
12	The Argument from Impotence	150
13	Conclusion	157

Chapter VI: Structure and Strategy

Diagram,	Explanation and Instructions for Use	159
Section 1	The Structure of Linguistic Philosophy	161
2	The Spectrum	166
3	The Prayer-Wheel	169
4	The Needle in the Haystack	170
5	Philosophy by Filibuster	170
6	The Reluctant Centipede	171
7	The Withering away of Philosophy	173

Section 8	The Spurious Fox	173
9	Two-tier Doctrine and Invertebrate Philosophy	174
10	The Full Circle	175
11	Solvitur Ambulando	176
12	Differential Realism	178
13	The New Koran	179
14	Saladin's Fork	181
15	The Indian Rope Trick	183
16	Philosophy by Frisson	184
17	Keep them Guessing	186
18	Insinuation and Taboo	188
19	Whoever said this?	189
20	Offensive and Defensive Positions	190
21	A Sense of Decorum	191
22	Collective Security	192

Chapter VII: Assessment

Section 1	What remains?	193
2	The Circularity	195
3	Travesty of Thought	198
4	Failure of Normativeness	201
5	The Paradox of Passivity	205
6	The Dimensions of Caution	209
7	The Dimensions of Empiricism	211
8	Linguistic Philosophy as an Orientation and a Style of Thought	212
9	A Collector's Piece	213
10	Originality	215
11	The Corruption of Youth	217

Chapter VIII: Implications

Section 1	Religion	220
2	Politics	223
3	The Three Stages of Weltanschauung	225

Chapter IX: Sociology

Section 1	Philosophy and Sociology	229
2	An Ideology	231
3	Some Comparisons	234
4	The Narodniks of North Oxford	237
5	Science, Power, Ideas	239
6	Internal Organisation	242
7	Conspicuous Triviality	245
8	Philosophy as an Institution	247
9	A Secularised Established Religion	248
10	Rival Styles	251
11	Existence precedes Essence	254

Chapter X: Conclusion 263

Index	267
-------	-----