

Contents

---

I THE MIND OF AMERICA

1. Coherence and Correspondence in American Thought, 3
2. The Philosopher and the Metropolis in America, 11
3. Two Studies of William James:
Some Problems of Philosophical Biography, 31
4. The Revolt Against Formalism in American Social Thought of the Twentieth Century, 41
5. A Note in Defense of Historicism, 68
6. Anti-intellectualism in America, 78

II PRAGMATISM AND ANALYTIC PHILOSOPHY

7. Pragmatism and the Scope of Science, 95
8. Logical Positivism and the Pragmatism of William James, 110
9. The Analytic and the Synthetic: An Untenable Dualism, 121
10. Experiment and Necessity in Dewey's Philosophy, 138
11. Value and Obligation in Dewey and Lewis, 155

III PHILOSOPHY AND CIVILIZATION

The Nature of Philosophy

12. New Horizons in Philosophy, 171

The Impact of Science on Philosophy

13. Darwin, Marx, and Materialism, 186
14. Social Darwinism and Dewey's Pragmatism, 194

Historical Knowledge

15. E. H. Carr on the Nature of History, 200
16. Richard Hofstadter on the Progressive Historians, 204

Education

17. Edgar Z. Friedenberg's Philosophy of Education, 210
18. The University in Transition, 219

Religion

19. Reinhold Niebuhr on the Irony of American History, 224
20. Advocacy and Objectivity in Religious Education, 228
21. Jacques Maritain: Philosopher in the Service of His Church, 233

In Praise of Civilized Men

22. The Open Mind of Robert Oppenheimer, 241
23. John Dewey: A Great Philosopher of Education, 244
24. A Tribute to Harry Austryn Wolfson, 248
25. The Later Years of George Santayana, 250
26. Memories of G. E. Moore, 254

Index, 263