

CONTENTS

PREFACE	xi
ACKNOWLEDGMENTS	xvii
1 Complex Equality	3
Pluralism	3
A Theory of Goods	6
Dominance and Monopoly	10
Simple Equality	13
Tyranny and Complex Equality	17
Three Distributive Principles	21
Free Exchange	21
Desert	23
Need	25
Hierarchies and Caste Societies	26
The Setting of the Argument	28
2 Membership	31
Members and Strangers	31
Analogies: Neighborhoods, Clubs, and Families	35
Territory	42
"White Australia" and the Claim of Necessity	46
Refugees	48
Alienage and Naturalization	52
The Athenian Metics	53
Guest Workers	56
Membership and Justice	61
3 Security and Welfare	64
Membership and Need	64
Communal Provision	68
Athens in the Fifth and Fourth Centuries	69
A Medieval Jewish Community	71

	Fair Shares	75
	The Extent of Provision	78
	An American Welfare State	84
	The Case of Medical Care	86
	A Note on Charity and Dependency	91
	The Examples of Blood and Money	93
4	Money and Commodities		95
	The Universal Pander	95
	What Money Can't Buy	97
	Conscription in 1863	98
	Blocked Exchanges	100
	What Money Can Buy	103
	The Marketplace	108
	The World's Biggest Department Store	110
	Washing Machines, Television Sets, Shoes, and Automobiles	112
	The Determination of Wages	116
	Redistributions	119
	Gifts and Inheritance	123
	Gift Exchange in the Western Pacific	123
	The Gift in the Napoleonic Code	125
5	Office		129
	Simple Equality in the Sphere of Office	129
	Meritocracy	135
	The Chinese Examination System	139
	The Meaning of Qualification	143
	What's Wrong with Nepotism?	147
	The Reservation of Office	148
	The Case of American Blacks	151
	Professionalism and the Insolence of Office	155
	The Containment of Office	160
	The World of the Petty Bourgeoisie	161
	Workers' Control	161
	Political Patronage	162
6	Hard Work		165
	Equality and Hardness	165
	Dangerous Work	168
	Grueling Work	170
	The Israeli Kibbutz	172

Contents

Dirty Work	174
The San Francisco Scavengers	177
7 Free Time		184
The Meaning of Leisure	184
Two Forms of Rest	187
A Short History of Vacations	190
The Idea of the Sabbath	192
8 Education		197
The Importance of Schools	197
The Aztec "House of the Young Men"	200
Basic Schooling: Autonomy and Equality	201
Hillel on the Roof	201
The Japanese Example	204
Specialized Schools	206
George Orwell's Schooldays	211
Association and Segregation	214
Private Schools and Educational Vouchers	217
Talent Tracks	220
Integration and School Busing	221
Neighborhood Schools	224
9 Kinship and Love		227
The Distributions of Affect	227
Plato's Guardians	229
Family and Economy	232
Manchester, 1844	232
Marriage	234
The Civic Ball	236
The Idea of the "Date"	237
The Woman Question	239
10 Divine Grace		243
The Wall between Church and State	245
The Puritan Commonwealth	246

11 Recognition	249
The Struggle for Recognition	249
A Sociology of Titles	249
Public Honor and Individual Desert	259
Stalin's Stakhanovites	262
The Nobel Prize in Literature	264
Roman and Other Triumphs	266
Punishment	268
Ostracism in Athens	270
Preventive Detention	271
Self-Esteem and Self-Respect	272
12 Political Power	281
Sovereignty and Limited Government	281
Blocked Uses of Power	282
Knowledge/Power	284
The Ship of State	285
Disciplinary Institutions	288
Property/Power	291
The Case of Pullman, Illinois	295
Democratic Citizenship	303
The Athenian Lottery	305
Parties and Primaries	306
13 Tyrannies and Just Societies	312
The Relativity and the Non-Relativity of Justice	312
Justice in the Twentieth Century	316
Equality and Social Change	318
NOTES	323
INDEX	337