

CONTENTS

.....

TRANSLATOR'S PREFACE	v
INTRODUCTION: KANT'S MORAL PHILOSOPHY	xi
NOTE ON THE TEXT	lxiii

THE METAPHYSICS OF MORALS

Preface to Part I, The Metaphysical Principles of Right	3
--	---

Introduction	9
--------------	---

Part II:

THE METAPHYSICAL PRINCIPLES OF VIRTUE

Preface	31
---------	----

Introduction	36
--------------	----

I. The Elements of Ethics

First Part of the Elements of Ethics:
Concerning Duties to Oneself	77
First Book: Concerning Perfect Duties to Oneself	82
First Chapter: Man's Duty to Himself insofar as He Is an Animal Being	82
Concerning Suicide (82)—Concerning Wanton Self-abuse (85)—Concerning Self-stupefaction through the Immoderate Use of Food and Drink (88)
Second Chapter: Man's Duty to Himself Considered only as a Moral Being	90
Concerning Lying (90)—Concerning Avarice (93)—Concerning Servility (96)
First Section: Concerning Man's Duty to Himself insofar as He Is the Innate Judge of Himself	100
Second Section: Concerning the Foremost Command of All Duties to Oneself	103
Episodic Section: Concerning the Amphiboly of the Moral Concepts of Reflection	105
Second Book: Concerning the Imperfect Duties of Man to Himself (Regarding His End)	108
First Section: Concerning His Duty to Himself to Develop and Increase His Natural Perfection	108
Second Section: Concerning One's Duty to Himself to Heighten His Moral Perfection	110
Second Part of the Elements of Ethics:
Concerning Ethical Duties to Others	112

First Chapter: Concerning Duties to Other People Considered Simply as Men	112
--	-----

First Section: Concerning the Duty of Love toward Other Men	112
--	-----

Concerning the Duty of Beneficence (116)—
Concerning the Duty of Gratitude (119)—
Sympathetic Feeling in General Is a Duty
(121)—Concerning the Vices of Hating Mankind,
Which Are Directly Opposed to Loving Mankind
(123)

Second Section: Concerning the Moral Duties to Other Men Issuing from the Respect Due Them	127
Pride (130)— Calumny (131)— Mockery (132)

Second Chapter: Concerning the Ethical Duties of Men to One Another with Regard to Their Conditions	134
---	-----

Conclusion of the Elements of Ethics: Concerning the Most Intimate Union of Love with Respect in Friendship	135
---	-----

Supplement: Concerning the Social Virtues	140
---	-----

II. The Methodology of Ethics

First Section: The Didactics of Ethics	145
--	-----

Second Section: Ethical Ascetics	154
----------------------------------	-----

Conclusion: Religion as a Doctrine of Duties to God Lies Outside the Limits of Pure Moral Philosophy	156
---	-----

GERMAN-ENGLISH LIST OF TERMS	163
------------------------------	-----

INDEX	167
-------	-----