

Contents

| | |
|--|---------|
| INTRODUCTION | page 15 |
| The Comparative Study of Religion—Religion, Natural and Revealed—The Origin and Development of Religion in the Light of Evolutionary Thought—The Comparative Method—Historical Reconstructions of Culture-horizons—The Diffusion of Culture—Rise of the World Religions—The Function of Religion | |
| I RELIGIOUS ORIGINS | 35 |
| Animism as a 'Minimum Definition of Religion'—Herbert Spencer's 'Ghost-theory'—Animatism and the Concept of the Numinous—Religion Defined—Life Values and Economic Determinants—Sexual Symbolism and the Oedipus Complex Hypothesis—the Magico-religious Control of The Food Supply—The Place and Significance of Totemism in Primitive Society—Group Theories of Religion and Primitive Mentality | |
| II THE MAGIC ART | 57 |
| Magic and Mana —Magic and Religion—The Nature and Significance of Initiation Ceremonies—The Cult of the Bull-roarer—The Technique of Magic—Shamanism and the Medicine-man—Magic, Black and White—Private and Public Ritual—Rain-making Ceremonies | |
| III THE RITUAL ORGANIZATION | 78 |
| The Meaning of Ritual—Rites of Transition: (a) Birth and Naming; (b) Initiation; (c) Marriage; (d) Death and Mourning Customs—Seasonal Ritual—The Annual Festival—Ritual Purification—The Sacred Marriage | |
| IV MYTH AND RITUAL | 99 |
| The Meaning of Myth—The Sociological Function of Mythology—The Relation of Myth and Ritual—The Place and Significance of the King in Ancient Egypt—The 'Toilet Ceremonies'—The Osiris Myth and the Osirian Mysteries—The Killing of the King and its Ritual Representations—The Tammuz-Adonis Myth—The Enuma elish in Babylonia—The Babylonian New Year Festival | |

V GREECE AND THE MYSTERY RELIGIONS

page 119

The Rise of Civilization in the Aegean—The Minoan-Mycenaean Substratum—The Olympian Tradition and the Cult of the Mother Goddess—The Origins of the Cultus at Eleusis—The Hymn to Demeter—Development of the Mysteries—The Autumnal Post-Athenian Rites—The Purpose of Initiation—The Dionysiac as a Thracian Orgy—Refinement of the Worship—Orphism and the Doctrine of Reincarnation—The Ethical Significance of Orphism.

VI ORIENTAL THEISM

141

Indus Valley Civilization and Hindu Origins—The Aryan Invasion and the Introduction of Vedic Polytheism—The Gods and the Changeless Cosmic Order—The Brahmanic Ritual Order—The Rise of Monism—The Pantheism of the Upanishads—Taoist Quietism and Confucian Ethics—Dualism of the Yang and the Yin—Tao and Li in Chinese Thought—The State Religion and the Divine Emperor—The National Faith of Japan—Shinto Polytheism and Cosmology—Influence of Buddhism and Confucianism on Shinto Theism

VII THE WAY OF SALVATION

164

The Way of Knowledge in the Upanishads—The Sankhya Theory of Salvation—The Way of Asceticism of Vardhamana, the Founder of Jainism—The Middle Way of Gautama, the Buddha—Escape from Suffering and the Law of Karma—The Theory of 'Becoming' and Monastic Buddhism—The Conception of Nirvana—The Way of Devotion (Bhakti)—The Hindu Epics: The Mahabharata and the Ramayana—The Bhagavad-Gitâ—Salvation by Grace according to the Way of Bhakti—Mahayana Buddhism and the Notion of Bodhisattva—Sectarian Buddhism in Japan—Amidism

VIII MONOTHEISM

186

Monism and Monotheism—Zoroastrian Worship of Ahura Mazda—Mazdaean Dualism—Solar Monotheism in Egypt and the Akhnaton Movement—Early Monotheistic Ideas among the Hebrews and the Primitive Belief in High Gods—The Tribal All-Father—The Mono-Yahwist Movement in Israel—The Hebrew Prophets—Mohammed and the Sovereignty of God—The Monotheism of Islam

IX SIN AND ATONEMENT

206

Moslem Ethics—Zoroastrian Conception of Sin and the Good Life—Sin in Ancient Egypt—The Babylonian Penitential Psalms and Ritual Texts—The Day of Atonement in Judaism—The Levitical and Rabbinic Penitential Theory—The Prophetic Movement and its Influence on Subsequent Thought—The Post-exilic Sacrificial Theology

—The Suffering Servant Saga—The Christian Conception of Sin and Redemption—The Pauline Doctrine of Forgiveness and of 'The Age to Come'—Justification by Faith—St Augustine and the Doctrine of Grace—Theories of the Atonement: Anselm and Abélard—Effects of the Reformation and the Counter-Reformation

X SACRIFICE AND SACRAMENT page 228

The Blood Covenant and the Origins of Sacrifice—Human Sacrifice and the Offering of the First-born—The Hebrew Pesach and the Massoth—The Relation of the Christian Eucharist to the Jewish Passover—The Last Supper and Messianic Meals—The Problem of the Institution of the Eucharist—The Relation of Christian Sacramentalism to the Mystery Cultus—Christianity and Mithraism

XI WORSHIP AND PRAYER 250

The Relation of Prayer to Spell—Ritual Invocation—Carmen Saeculare, Votum and Devotio in Ancient Rome—Hellenic Prayers—Egyptian Magical Formulae—Babylonian Incantations and Liturgies—The Conception of Prayer and Worship in Buddhism—Cultus in Confucianism—Zoroastrian Worship—The Place and Function of the Temple in Judaism—The Development of Christian Worship—Liturgies Eastern and Western—The Moslem Ritual of the Daily Salat

XII IMMORTALITY 275

Palaeolithic Interments—Primitive Conception of Immortality—The Preservation of the Body in Egypt—The Separable Soul—The Underworld—The Mystery Conception of Immortality—The Philosophical Approach to the Doctrine of the Immortal Soul—Hebrew Ideas of the Hereafter—Jewish and Zoroastrian Eschatology—The Christian Hope of Immortality—Pauline Ethical Psychology: Flesh and Spirit—The Verdict of the Church—The Moslem Attitude to Immortality

XIII CONCLUSION 303

The Cultural Function of Religion—The Relation of Religion to Social Structure—Supernatural Sanctions and Spiritual Dynamic—Providence and Immortality—Fundamental Affirmations—Transition from a Ritual to a Moral Order—The Influence of the Prophetic Movement in Israel—The Genius of the Hebrew Prophets—The Contribution of Christianity to Ethical Religion and Social Values

BIBLIOGRAPHY 317

INDEX 327