

Contents

Preface	ix
PART ONE: INTRODUCTION
I. Introductory Remarks	3
II. The Problem	11
III. The Key	16
PART TWO: THE DEVELOPMENT OF THE THEORY
IV. The First Form of the Model	25
V. A Critique of the First Form of the Model	35
VI. The Second Form of the Model	57
VII. A Critique of the Second Form of the Model	66
VIII. The Third Form of the Model	71
IX. The Priority of Liberty and Other Complications	85
PART THREE: RAWLS AND KANT
X. Kant and Rawls	101
XI. The Kantian Background	106
XII. The Kantian Interpretation of the Original Position	112
PART FOUR: A CRITIQUE OF THE THEORY
XIII. The General Facts about Human Society	119
XIV. Primary Goods and Life-Plans	133
XV. A Formal Analysis of the Bargaining Game	142
XVI. The Logical Status of Rawls's Argument	180
PART FIVE: IS RAWLS RIGHT?
XVII. The Abstractness of Rawls's Theory	195
Bibliography	211
Index	213