

CONTENTS

Introduction	1
Part One WHAT THE REVIEWERS SAID
1. Sons of God in the City James H. Smylie	7
2. A Look at the Secular City James M. Gustafson	12
3. How Do We Speak of God Without Religion? Bernard Murchland	17
4. Supercity from Christianity Today	23
5. Today's City: Threat or Promise? Max L. Stackhouse	26
6. The Secular City and the Bible George W. Peck	38
7. Urban Renewal in the Holy City Ruel Tyson	46
Part Two THE CHRISTIANITY AND CRISIS DEBATE
1. What It Means to Be Secular Charles C. West	59
2. Chalcedon in Technopolis Paul Lehmann	64
3. The Social Gospel Revisited David Little	69
4. Where Is the Church? C. Kilmer Myers	75
5. Does The Secular City Revisit the Social Gospel? George D. Younger	77
6. Secular Style and Natural Law Michael Novak	81
7. Cox on His Critics Harvey Cox	85

Part Three THE COMMONWEAL DEBATE

- |   |     |
|---|-----|
| 1. Toward a Theology of Secularity                            | 91  |
| Daniel Callahan   |     |
| 2. An Exchange of Views                                       | 101 |
| Andrew Greeley, Michael Novak, Harvey Cox,Daniel Callahan |     |

Part Four PRESSING THE INQUIRY FURTHER

- |  |     |
|--|-----|
| 1. Cox's Vision of the Secular City              | 129 |
| Richard L. Rubenstein                            |     |
| 2. A Little Bit of a Revolution?                 | 145 |
| Steven S. Schwarzschild                          |     |
| 3. Reflections on the Problem of Speaking of God | 156 |
| Claude Welch                                     |     |
| 4. How to Speak of God in a Secular Style        | 168 |
| Harmon R. Holcomb                                |     |

Part Five HARVEY COX RESPONDS

- |            |     |
|------------|-----|
| Afterword  | 179 |
| Harvey Cox |     |

Appendix BEYOND BONHOEFFER 205

- |   |  |
|---|--|
| The Future of Religionless Christianity |  |
| Harvey Cox                              |  |

Index 215