

Contents

Preface	vii
I. INTRODUCTION
1. The Community Justice Movement Todd R. Clear and David R. Karp	3
II. COMMUNITY ACTION
2. Community Organizations and Crime Susan F. Bennett	31
3. The Takoma Orange Hats: Fighting Crime and Building Community in Washington, D.C. Suzanne Goldsmith-Hirsch	47
4. Building Community Capacity to Prevent Violence through Coalitions and Partnerships David M. Chavis	81
III. RACE AND CLASS
5. Toward a Theory of Race, Crime, and Urban Inequality Robert J. Sampson and William Julius Wilson	97
6. Crime and the Racial Fears of White Americans Wesley G. Skogan	119

IV. COMMUNITY POLICING

- | | | |
|-----|---|-----|
| 7. | A Tale of Two Targets: Limitations of Community Anticrime Actions
Michael E. Buerger | 137 |
| 8. | “Angels in Marble”: Problems in Stimulating
Community Involvement in Community Policing
Randolph M. Grinc | 167 |
| 9. | Civil Liberties and Aggressive Enforcement:
Balancing the Rights of Individuals and Society
in the Drug War
Dennis P. Rosenbaum | 203 |
| 10. | Disorder and the Court
George L. Kelling and Catherine M. Coles | 233 |

V. COMMUNITY PROSECUTION AND SANCTIONING

- | | | |
|-----|---|-----|
| 11. | Community Prosecution: Portland’s Experience
Barbara Boland | 253 |
| 12. | Conditions of Successful Reintegration
Ceremonies: Dealing with Juvenile Offenders
John Braithwaite and Stephen Mugford | 279 |
| 13. | The “Community” in Community Justice:
Issues, Themes, and Questions for the New Neighborhood Sanctioning Models
Gordon Bazemore | 327 |

VI. CONCLUSION

- | | | |
|-----|---|-----|
| 14. | Community Justice in a Communitarian Perspective
Amitai Etzioni | 373 |
| | Index | 379 |
| | About the Contributors | 385 |