

CONTENTS

Preface	vii
1. Illumination through Analysis: A Study in Vedāntic Conception vis-à-vis the Mādhyamika	1
2. The Philosophy of Nāgārjuna and Candrakīrti	15
3. Satori in Zen Buddhism	28
4. The Noble Truths	35
5. Māyā : the Advaitin's Gordian Knot	48
6. Significance of Knowledge in Śaṅkara and Yājñavalkya	54
7. Tolerance in Advaita	61
8. Transcendental Secularism	67
9. Freedom in Indian Thought: Some Highlights	73
10. Rationalism of the Gītā	79
11. The Philosophy of Baladeva Vidyābhūṣaṇa	83
12. The Philosophy of Sri Aurobindo	94
13. Analytic Philosophy: Its Multiple Facets	113
14. The Problem of Universals	120
15. What is Living and What is Dead in Religion?	124
16. A Plea for Common-ism	134
17. Values: Dharma and Mokṣa	145
18. Can There Be a Synthesis of Eastern and Western Thought?	154
Index	163