
Contents

Abbreviations	xi
Introduction	1
1. The Ontology of Situations	7
1. An Introduction to the Concept of Situation	7
2. The Objectivity of Situations	16
3. The Subjectivity of Situations	31
4. A Comprehensive View of Merleau-Ponty's Ontology	40
2. The Logic of Situations	52
1. Primordial Contact	52
2. Articulation and Creative Specification	64
3. Contact and Metastructures	79
4. Temporality	91
3. Perception	108
1. The Constancy of Shape and Size	112
2. Proximity, the Thing, and the Real	130
3. Color Constancy and Lighting	142
4. Area Colors, Sense-Data, and Primordial Depth	149
5. Color Proximity and Motility	157
4. Cognition	167
1. Sublimation as the Function of Cognition	167
2. Language and Cognition	182
3. The Evident and the True	198
4. Cognitive Evidence and Truth	215
5. Being and Man	236
1. Being and Subjectivity	241
2. Being, Sociality, and History	262

Appendix: Translation of the Table of Contents of the Phénoménologie de la perception and Its Integration into the English Text	277
Bibliography:	287
1. Primary Sources	287
2. Secondary Sources Cited	289
Index	293